Antioch Mental Health Association disbands

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

In her speech at the 35th and last Cotillion to be held by the Antioch Mental Health Association, Louisa Andrae, daughter of the association's founder Louise Vos, said, "In the book of Ecclesiastes, Chapter 3 verse 1 says, 'There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under the heaven.'...At our May meeting, the board discussed and voted to make such a move (to end the association). The Thrift Shop will close its doors on June 30."

In a later interview, Andrae said she thought this day would have come some time ago. She said, "My mother, Louise Vos, is gone 8 years now. We felt if it (the association and the Thrift Shop) held together for two or three years after my mother passed away, it would be great. The volunteers are a wonderful group of hard working women, and that is why it has lasted as long as it has."

The first Cotillion was held on April 16, 1966 and was called Cotillion-A-Go-Go. An old newspaper clipping from 1966 displayed at the 35th Cotillion said, "Members of the Antioch Woman's Club voted last Tuesday to form a local chapter of the Lake County Mental Health Society. The decision was made at a garden party at the home of Mrs. Edmund F. Vos, 576 Main St., Antioch."

Andrae said, "Mother was on the Lake County mental health board, and her interest stemmed from that. The Woman's Club sponsored this association. The Cotillion was a nice for the women who didn't want to work every week, and then the Thrift Shop started and it grew and grew. It was my mother's baby."

The group decided to disband and close the Thrift Shop because it had difficulty finding volunteers to manage the shop.

"It's sad to have to do this, but I think we can be proud of what we've done," said Andrae.

Lake Villa annexes site of new ACHS expansion

By BRENDA BALIN-BEITSCHER
Staff Reporter

Lake Villa will officially be the site of a new high school to be built in Antioch Dist. 117.

This will be the second high school for the district, which serves Lake Villa and Lindenhurst, as well as Antioch.

Following a public hearing at the last regular meeting of the Lake Villa Board of Trustees, the board agreed to the annexation of two related parcels of land located at the intersection of Deep Lake and Grass Lake Rds.

The southeast corner currently holds soccer fields used by Antioch

Community High School. The 50-acre site will accommodate additional athletic fields, to be used by Antioch and Lake Villa townships as well as the high school.

The 67-acres site on the northeast corner will be the home of a second building for ACHS. The new building will also house offices for the high school district and Antioch Township as well as community rooms to be used by Lake Villa Township and the two other entities.

The joint project will allow the townships and high school district to pool resources and grants, providing efficient and cost-effective use of the site.

Lake Villa students currently are served by one of three high school districts: ACHS, Grayslake or Grant High School, depending on where they reside.

The site on Grass Lake Rd. was chosen as the best site to accommodate the high school as well as the multiple-use building to be associated with it.

Although attendance boundaries have yet to be determined, Dist. 117 Superintendent Dennis Hockney predicted, "It is likely that Lake Villa students who are in the district will attend this school."

Neumann's denied

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

At the end of the two-day public hearing for the proposed Neumann Homes development for 1,308 detached single-family homes on approximately 634 acres continued from Sept. 21, 2000, the combined planning commission and zoning board voted three to two with one absent to deny the developer's proposal.

Commissioner Don Jansky made the motion to deny approval and said, "Based on the impact to the village and surrounding communities' hardship, creating a severe traffic overload, seriously overloading the school districts and possible economic hardship to the schools and community. The relative gain to the public denying the petition is greater compared to the hardship imposed to Neumann Homes."

The board's recommendation to deny the Neumann Homes proposal will go to the board of directors of the Village of Antioch on July 16 as it was deemed too soon to present at the July 2 meeting with the Fourth of July festivities at hand. There was discussion, though no final decision, about whether the meeting will be held at Village Hall or moved to a bigger location to accommodate the expected crowd of concerned citizens.

"We're just delighted," said Antioch Township resident Marianne Guy who lives very near where the development has been proposed.

Resident Nancy Lubkeman expressed hope that the village board will consider the feelings and concerns of residents and those in neighboring communities. She said, "We are looking to the village trustees to continue the work the planning and zoning board did in denying Neumann Homes."

The public hearing began on June 25 and after three and one-half hours of presentations by Ken Neumann of Neumann Homes, public comment made by dozens of residents between speeches and letters excerpted from last fall's hearing as well as comments made by Lake County board members and Lake County Forest Preserve commissioners, the board asked questions and at the request of commissioner Bob McCarty recessed until 7 p.m. the following evening.

When the meeting reconvened, commissioners had the opportunity to ask final questions and address unanswered concerns from the night before.

One of these items dealt with variance requests for the length of culs-de-sac. Public safety inspector Lee Shannon submitted a letter stating that his office had looked at the tight reverse curves and length of cul-de-sac and determined that fire trucks and other such equipment would be able to get through without problem.

Commissioner Frank Johnson, who had no questions or comments on the first night of the hearing, asked whether all easements had been met. Village attorney Donald Anderson said, "Based on the criteria used to grant easements, they should be granted."

Tips For Smart Sunning

Volume 2, Number 6

SMART TAN

smart

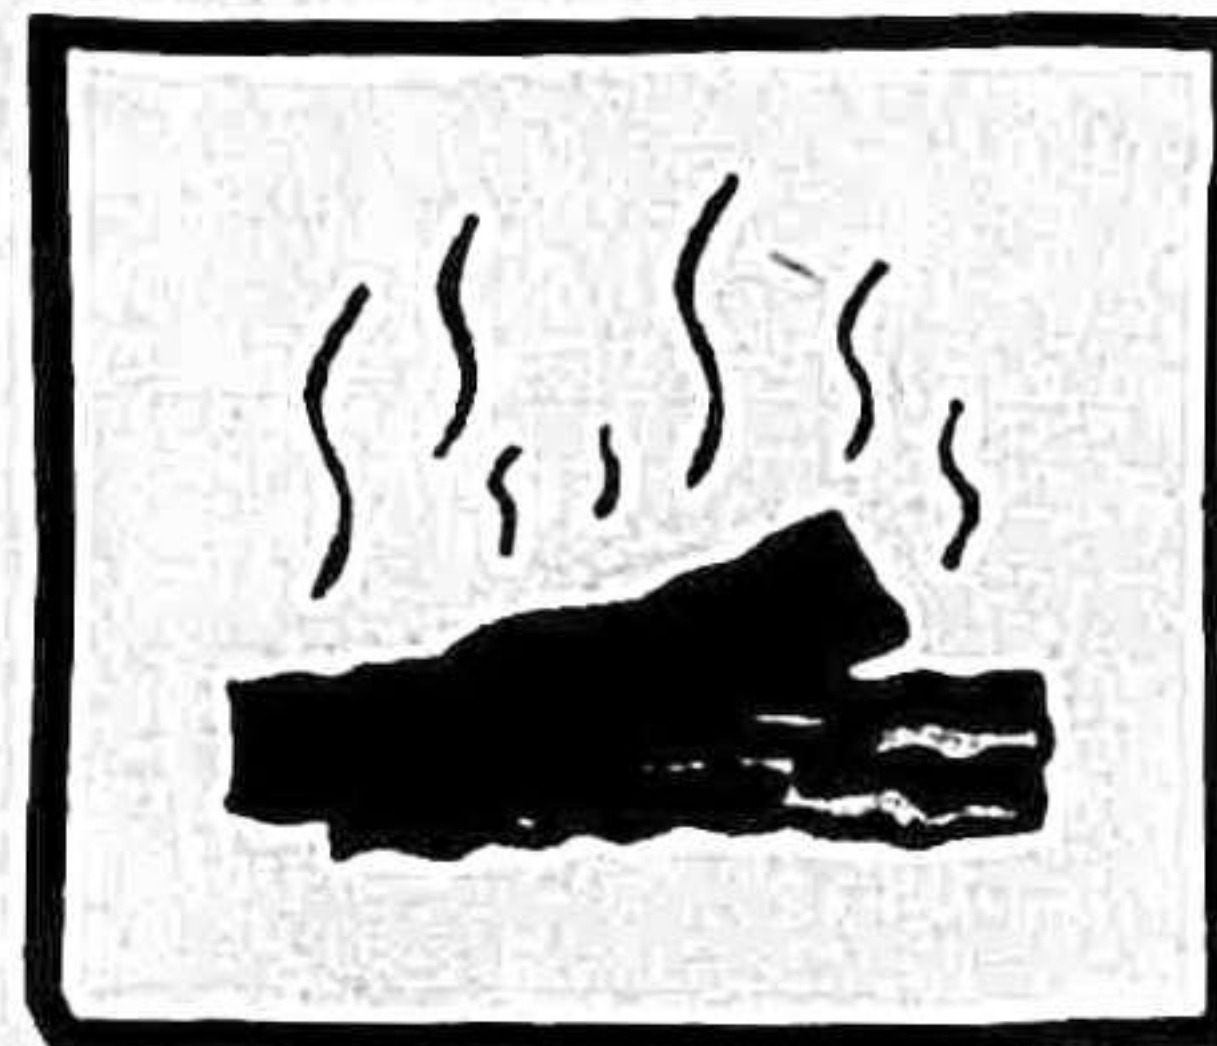

When enjoying the outdoors, wear a full-spectrum sunscreen, even if you already have a tan. You can still tan while wearing sun block, and you can still sunburn if you have a tan.

Sunburn is the enemy most associated with skin damage. It is an injury on top of your tan, but it is not necessary to "fade" into a tan as some may believe.

In fact, a burn injury can slow or even stall the tan you are trying to achieve. Always avoid getting a sunburn, whether tanning outdoors or in.

While it isn't necessary to wear a sun block 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, the length of exposure you can handle depends on individual skin type and other variables such as geographic location or time of day.

A Summer Guide To "Smart Tanning"

JACKSON, Mich., (June 2) — Clients of professional indoor tanning facilities are up to 81 percent less likely to sunburn when they do go outdoors compared to their non-tanning counterparts, according to a survey of 4,000 tanning salon patrons conducted by the International Smart Tan Network.

"Tanning is your body's natural protection against sunburn. It is what your body is designed to do," Smart Tan Vice President Joseph Levy said. "Millions of indoor tanners every year come to tanning facilities, develop protective tans and learn first-hand how to use sunscreen properly outdoors to practice what we call 'Smart Tanning.'"

A Smart Tan means knowing what your skin is capable of, and completely avoiding sunburn indoors and outdoors. Non-tanners who are encouraged to avoid the sun completely are more likely to sunburn when they eventually do go outside. "We see it every summer on Memorial Day and other holidays: The non-tanners are the ones who burn severely. And intermittent sunburn is the biggest risk factor for permanent skin damage," Levy said.

Anti-tanning lobbyists often say there is no such thing as a safe tan, ignoring the fact that non-tanners are more likely to eventually get severe sunburns. "People are smart — they realize that anti-tanning lobbyists are overstating the risks associated with sun exposure and are completely ignoring the fact that there are benefits associated with ultraviolet light. People know when they are being misled," Levy said.

The International Smart Tan Network is a Michigan-based educational association representing professional indoor tanning facilities and their customers in North America, South America, Australia and New Zealand. Smart Tan is the leading source of educational material for professional tanning facilities worldwide, teaching the concepts of sunburn prevention as an intelligent lifestyle that respects the benefits and the risks associated with sun exposure.

Circuit breaker pharmaceutical assistance program expanded

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

State Rep. Timothy Osmond (R-Antioch) praised the signing of legislation to expand the state of Illinois' Circuit Breaker pharmaceutical assistance program to include medication used in the treatment of osteoporosis.

"Patients suffering from osteoporosis have been hit hard by the ever-increasing cost of prescription drugs used to treat the disease, and we must provide relief," said Osmond. "I am pleased that we have been able to incorporate the medication treating osteoporosis into the list of available coverage under the Circuit Breaker program."

Officials from the Department on Aging urge seniors who qualify for the program and suffer from osteoporosis to register through the Department of Revenue as soon as possible. "Individuals with osteoporosis are prone to fractures and require medication to counter the loss of bone mass," said the department's director Margo Schreiber. "This will be welcome news to many older people who are managing what can be a very painful disease."

Other pharmaceuticals covered under the plan include those used for the treatment of arthritis, diabetes, cardiovascular disease, cancer, Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, glaucoma, lung disease and smoking related illnesses.

Osmond's legislative aide Linda Pedersen said, "Earlier this year they raised the amount for eligibility from $16,000 (annual income), for singles and couples, to $21,218 or less for singles and $28,480 or less for couples. It still is not a lot, but it made so many more seniors eligible for the program." She added that those who are disabled are qualified at any age as long as they meet the other criterion.

"This is a wonderful program for seniors," said Osmond. "Circuit Breakers is a series designed to help senior citizens by providing a number of financial benefits including lower license plate fees and lower property taxes as well as the assistance given for prescription medication."

A $54 discount is given to qualified seniors on their license plate renewal. The property tax relief grant equals the lesser of the following: a person's property tax bill less 3.5 percent of household income; or a maximum allowable grant of $700 less 4.5 percent of household income.

The prescription drug coverage increased this year to $2,000. After the $2,000 is exhausted, the state will pay 80 percent of each covered prescription. Participants are required to pay an $80 entry fee and a $25 monthly deductible for participants above the poverty level. Those below the poverty level pay an $40 entry fee and a $15 monthly deductible.

"This program has expanded dramatically in the last year because the threshold was increased to allow thousands more into the program," said Osmond. "One of the hardest things now is educating the public about the programs available so that even more seniors can benefit. If we can get the word out, adult children will know that there is assistance for their parents."

Participants have to apply annually. Applications are available at Osmond's office, 838-6200 as well as at most senior centers and the township halls. Additional information can be obtained at the Circuit Breaker and pharmaceutical assistance web site: www.revenue.state.il.us, or by calling 1-800-624-2459 (TDD 1-800-544-5304).

Fourth of July festivities packed with activities for all to enjoy

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

The activities planned for the Fourth of July will offer something for everyone from old fashioned games such as sack races and a greased pole climb to hog calling and an opportunity for one lucky woman to be bestowed with the title "Queen Leech."

Frank Johnson, a newly appointed member to the combined planning and zoning board, and Jack Fields, a ReMax Realtor, volunteered to come up with the list of games, raffles and prize winning opportunities that are sponsored by the Village of Antioch. These games will take place between 3-5:30 p.m. at Williams Park. The complete list of activities is as follows: a greased pole climb, sack races, a dunk tank, the bowl of leeches prize drawing, a 50-50 raffle, a hog calling contest and a tug-o-war.

For the pole climb, a $50 bill will be placed at the top of an 8-foot pole. The pole will be greased with petroleum jelly and a team (two people minimum) will be given one minute to try to reach the top of the pole and retrieve the money, the cash prize. The sack races are straight forward, and offer prize coupons from Baskin-Robbins.

Fields said there would be a surprise dunk-e as the victim at the dunk tank. For $1 participants will get three chances to dunk the mystery volunteer.

prize dunk-e as the victim at the dunk tank. For $1 participants will get three chances to dunk the mystery volunteer.

"The bowl of leeches is for women only," said Johnson. Community development director Claude LeMere quickly added, "These are non-aggressive leeches, the type used for bait. Triangle bait is supplying them." The challenge is for women to plunge their hands into the bowl filled with these charming creatures to pull out buttons for prizes. "There will be one really nice prize," said Johnson. "The woman who selects it will also get the title of queen leech or something."

The 50-50 raffle will offer participants an opportunity to split the pot collected for the raffle. The hog-calling contest will require a minimum of 12 people to participate. It's not too late to prepare the best call.

The tug-o-war requires teams of four people and an entry fee of $20 per team and will take place over a mud pit. Cash prizes will be awarded, and divisions may be developed depending on the number and member make up of teams.

For more information, contact the community development office at 395-6342.

School districts could turn into another situation like Round Lake

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Many residents are concerned that if the Neumann Homes development is approved, the Antioch Community High School (ACHS) Dist. 117 and Antioch Community Consolidated School Dist. 34 could end up in a situation similar to the pickle Round Lake Schools are in now: millions of dollars in debt, taxed at the maximum multiplier of 4 percent with no hope of recuperation and the state of Illinois contemplating the high school's closure.

Resident Brent Gandolfi made a lengthy presentation that brought residents to their feet in gratitude during public comment at the continued public hearing for the developer's proposal that would add 1,308 houses and more to the village's population.

Gandolfi, who have purchased the demographic sheets from Ehlers

Corp. in Naperville that is an Illinois school consulting service, and used this formula along with the estimated figures from Dist. 34 to calculate the costs of educating the additional children the development would bring. By his calculations, the swing of 80 elementary aged children is about $400,000.

He said, "I've learned a lot about my right to speak. It's not the right to discuss - just to be heard. Officials just listen and move on, and then wonder why residents are mad when their comments are disregarded."

Gandolfi continued, "This summer the state is deciding whether to close the (Round Lake) high school because it is millions of dollars in debt...Mr. Neumann, do you have a development in the Round Lake or the Round Lake Beach area?"

Similar to former president Bill Clinton's need to define his terms in defending himself, Neumann was in a similar situation when he first responded that they build homes within the Pritzker development, but have no developments of their own and later had to change that statement.

Chairman of the Lake County board of directors Suzy Schmidt said, "Neumann Homes has a development in Round Lake Heights."

When public comment was closed Neumann said, "There are three different developments in Round Lake where we are building houses. I define a developer as someone who buys the property and improves it and makes all the plans." He indicated that in addition to the Pritzker development and the one in Round Lake Heights that Neumann Homes had bought a development from another developer.

"I'm told by Chris Lebling (Neumann Homes division manager) that we are not building in the school district mentioned," said Neumann.

Rotarians raffle waverunner for area aid

Summer fun can be enhanced if you're lucky enough to win the Yamaha XLT1200 Waverunner being raffled off by the Antioch Rotary Club for its fifth annual Summer Fun Raffle.

Previously, the Rotarians sold 400 tickets for $50 for a new Harley motorcycle, but this they decided to sell 1,000 tickets for $20 for the waverunner to get more people involved.

The raffle works on a 50/50 principle: 50 percent of the proceeds are used to cover the cost of the machine, and the other 50 percent will be used to support the Rotary Club's many philanthropic deeds.

In the past, the Antioch Rotary Club has supported both girl and boy scouts, helps local schools and churches Antioch and the surrounding area, has donated money to the Antioch Rescue Squad and helped financially with Centennial Playground and the William Brook

Julie Murphy

Memorial Wetland and Entertainment Center.

Arrangements for the Waverunner are being made courtesy of Nielsen Enterprises in Lake Villa, and they will take care of the registration and processing fees so that all the winner will have to do is pay the income tax on the prize and wheel it off the lot.

This Waverunner model is reputed to be one of the best. It sits three people, and comes complete with a trailer. It can be seen at the State Bank of The Lakes at 440 Lake St., but will be out and about for the Fourth of July celebration.

The drawing will be held on July 23 at the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry MegaFest. Tickets can be purchased through any Rotarian, the First National Bank-Employee Owned, State Bank of The Lakes, or at the Advertiser.

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry is also conducting a raffle, and the lucky first-prize winner will take home $10,000. Five second place winners will take home $200 each.

Only 260 tickets are being sold for this raffle at $100 each. Winners will be chosen at MegaFest on July 21 at 9 p.m.

Call the Chamber office to reserve your ticket at 395-2233. Visa and Mastercard will be accepted for payment as well as cash or check.

Village board considers designated carpool parking

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Village of Antioch, resident Tom Pingel asked the board to consider establishing some carpool parking within the village.

He explained that he and two other residents had been using the Ace Hardware lot as their meeting location, but had been asked not to do that anymore. "From there we parked under the water tower and my tires were chalked. The we moved to the Town Pump and our tires were chalked again and we received a second warning letter," said Pingel.

Trustee Larry Hanson explained that the village did have 12 hour parking at one time, but the spots with extended time limits were misused by high school and the limits were decreased.

Trustee Dorothy Larson said, "We have enough village lots that I think we can allocate some small amount of spots for carpooling."

Directed to police Chief Charlie Watkins, trustee Scott Pierce asked, "Can we give him a temporary solution?"

Watkins replied, "I don't have the authority to give you permission where there are village ordinances covering those spots. The ordinance says the maximum is six hours."

"They are doing a service to the environment," said trustee Wayne Foresta. "I think we ought to consider that."

Mayor Taso Maravelas told Pingel the board would look into the issue and would get back to him at the next meeting (June 2).

LOCAL DIGEST

Dist. 117 seeks intergovernmental agreement

Antioch Community High School Dist. 117 business manager Bill Ahlers made a written request to assistant village administrator Mike Haley requesting the village board approve a resolution to enter into an intergovernmental agreement with the high school district and Antioch Township to facilitate the Illinois Dept. of Natural Resources grant process for land acquisition of park land.

At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Village of Antioch Haley said, "The high school district is taking the lead on the intergovernmental agreement between the village, township and the high school district."

Trustee Dorothy Larson asked whether the high school district was looking at any specific property. Haley responded, "Yes, but they haven't been identified yet. We're just authorizing the attorney to look at this."

Contracts to be awarded for air conditioning, fine arts center

It is expected that contracts will be awarded for both the air conditioning work needed and the fine arts center at the current Antioch Community High School Dist. 117 building will be awarded at the July 12 board of education meeting.

The fine arts center will be located on the southeast side of the building. Funding was made possible when voters approved bond referendum last November.

Market Day sale set for July 11

Well it is still two months before school begins and already you have run out of chicken steaks, 1/3 pound hamburgers and 3-pack cheese pizzas. Your kids are crying because the bagel dog box in the freezer is empty and there is no more string cheese left in the refrigerator. You go to pack a picnic lunch and realize there are no more Veryfine Lemonade bottles or pb&j roundwiches left. Hey, who ate the last of the French toast sticks?

Well, here is your chance to restock your refrigerator and freezer with all those yummy ever-popular Market Day goodies that you may be missing now that the school year is over. The folks at St. Peter School, right here in Antioch, are once again sponsoring summer Market Day sales.

Some of the items on special for this next sale are: 1/4 pound beef patties, pork chops, quick n' crispy fries, baby back ribs, London broil and who can resist those chocolate-chocolate chip puddin' cakes. There are also some specially marked Clearance items on sale this month which includes mini malt-balls, crunchy honey Dijon chicken steaks and stuffed shrimp. Key Lime pie is the dessert of the month. The next pick-up date is Wednesday, July 11 from 4:30-5:30 p.m. in the St. Peter School gym. You may obtain your order form, or place a phone order, by calling the Religious Education Office at 395-0246. Just leave your name and phone number. All order forms must be returned by

Clean-up crew

Antioch residents relax after a busy day clearing area roads of debris surrounding the proposed Neumann homes development site.

Volunteers clean road trash from Neumann Homes area

Fourteen Antioch residents and volunteers from Neumann Homes picked up garbage along Savage Rd, Miller Rd. and White Rd., collecting over 40 garbage bags full of trash and began loading into the giant dumpster, furniture, construction material and other large waste that had been dumped along these roads.

"We at Neumann Homes want to do all we can to help keep the nature-rich surroundings of Antioch clean," said Chris Lebling, division president of Neumann Homes Northeast Division.

"We heard that a large amount of dumping occurs along White Rd., and we saw that as a great opportunity to offer our labor and services in an effort to keep the area waste-free. After seeing the significant amount of large items that were along the roads, we are certainly glad that we have been able to help."

Neumann Homes organizers secured the assistance of Waste Management in placing a dumpster along the clean-up route and removing most of the large waste. After filling one large commercial dumpster with most of the waste, Neumann paid for pick up by a professional three-man crew Tuesday, June 26.

Neumann Homes has proposed a community development to be built on approximately 634 acres near the area of Savage, White and Miller Rds.

POLICE BEAT

Persons charged with a crime are innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.

ANTIOCH

Warrant arrest

Erik R. Enzenbacher, 36, of 26287 Marie Place in Antioch, was arrested on warrant on June 21 at 8:22 a.m. at the intersection of Lake and Toft streets.

Police saw Enzenbacher walking along Lake St. and recognized him from prior contacts and had knowledge he was wanted through the McHenry County Sheriff's Dept. The officer stopped Enzenbacher and notified him of the confirmed complaint for obstructing justice, driving under the influence and destroying evidence. The warrant carried a $20,000 bond (10 percent applies).

Enzenbacher was arrested and transported to the Antioch Police Dept. He was unable to secure bond and was transported to the Lake County Jail because the McHenry County Sheriff's Dept. could not pick him up until noon.

Revoked driver's license

Daniel S. Davis, 32, of 375 Winsor Dr. in Antioch was arrested for driving with a revoked driver's license on June 22 at 5:22 p.m. at the intersection of Main and First streets.

Police saw Davis turn onto Main St. from

First St. and knew him to have a revoked driver's license from prior contacts. His identifiers were checked through LEADS/SOS to confirm this information.

Davis was arrested and transported to the Antioch Police Dept. where he was put through booking procedures and issued citations for driving while revoked and operating an uninsured vehicle. He was released on personal recognizance pending court.

Suspended driver's license

Christopher Mishaan, 32, of 293 Joanna Ct. in Antioch, was arrested for driving with a suspended driver's license on June 19 at 7:08 a.m. at the intersection of Main St. and Oakridge Ct.

Police saw Mishaan turn northbound on Main St. Through prior contact, the officer knew both the plates on the car and his driver's license were suspended. This was confirmed through LEADS/NCIC.

Mishaan was arrested and transported to the Antioch Police Dept. where he was put through booking procedures and issued citations for driving with suspended registration and a suspended driver's license. He was released on personal recognizance pending his July 27 court date.

Loop it up!

A baby red-tailed fox takes a gander back from the middle of the fairway as if to let me know this is his domain. Point well taken. Meanwhile, on the neighboring fairway, a couple of fawns search for grubs amongst the mulch spread along greenside.

If you love nature while getting some exercise in the process, the golf course is the place to be.

Aspiring caddies, take notice.

There are plenty of us out there, including your truly. But the need for more is never lacking.

Just ask Gustavo Ornelas, caddymaster at Shoreacres in Lake Bluff.

"We have a lot more play this year," he said. "So we are still very much in need of more caddies, especially for outings."

Ornelas, as do several other caddymasters and caddie programs in the area, share the same sentiments.

Shoreacres, along with private clubs such as Merit Club in Gurnee, Onwentsia Club in Lake Forest, and Knollwood Club in Lake Bluff, maintain some of the stronger caddie programs on the North Shore.

"We have a very solid program," said Onwentsia Club Caddymaster Victor Berroa. "We even help a lot of other area clubs out that may need extra caddies for an outing or special event."

What a better way to get in shape while enjoying the great outdoors. Plus, you get to meet a host of rather intriguing people along the way.

The pay is not too shabby either. Generally speaking, the highest level of a caddie, the Honor, makes on average $60-80 for a carrying two bags for 18 holes. And even if your not the best of caddies, there's still a place for you. Beginning loopers, or jocks, as we are commonly referred to, are categorized as 'B' caddies. Of course, the pay scale is a little less but who can complain about making cash while also learning and getting a sun tan along the way! Most area clubs provide caddie schools to prepare the novice crowd with the proper techniques and tools.

Caddying also opens opportunities for college financial assistance. Enter the Chick Evans Scholarship Foundation, which was established in 1913 by one of Chicago's great amateurs, Charles "Chick" Evans.

Since that time, over 7,000 'Evans Scholars' have graduated from college.

Presently, there are over 820 golf caddies attending college on an Evans Scholarship.

Simply inquire about the Evans Scholarships at wherever you intend to caddie. Winners are usually selected on the basis of their caddie and academic (high school) records, along with their character and need for financial assistance.

The 30th Annual Lake County Ladies Invitational Amateur Golf Tournament will be held Monday, July 16 at Bonnie Brook Golf Course, located at 2800 N. Lewis Ave. in Waukegan.

The entry fee is $75, which includes 2001 LCLGA membership, green fees, prizes, and lunch. No more than 120 entries will be accepted. The deadline for entries is July 2. Please call 295-0411 for further information or registration.

This year's Northstar Fishing Classic will be held at Captain Curt's Resort, 25855 W. Rte. 173 in Antioch. The Classic features Saturday and Sunday take-offs at 7 a.m. and weigh-in ceremonies at 3 p.m. An awards presentation to the top anglers in their divisions will follow the weigh-in on Saturday, along with a good old-fashioned Pig Roast Picnic. For more information, call Northland Bass at (815) 678-9940 or Captain Curt's at 395-8604.

Warren tennis camp preaches 'Excellence'

By ROB BACKUS
Staff Reporter

Last year was a banner one for Warren's summer tennis program.

After numerous sessions, a camp-record 332 area youths participated, an increase of 50 players. That figure doubled the in the number of participants over the previous three years.

However, with players set to compete in various tournaments throughout the Midwest, coupled with the absence of camp mainstay Jeff Fedor, who now lives in Minnesota, time became a problem.

So Greg Cohen, Warren's head tennis coach and director of the camps, decided to cut this year's summer program short after one session.

"If Jeff was still here, I would probably have a second session," said Cohen.

Despite being cut to just one three-week session, Warren's Junior Excellence tennis program was yet again another success.

The camp, open to area youths in grades 6-8, serves as preparation for high school tennis careers but it is also intended to promote fun while playing.

"It gives kids a chance to know each other," said Cohen. "We've had some solid friendships form already."

The camp consists of a series of drills including volleying, ground strokes, 20 minutes of serve practice and matches against other camp participants.

"Playing matches was a lot of fun," said 11-year-old Konrad Siczek of Antioch. "It helped me learn how to compete."

Although Cohen was without Fedor, Scott Merzlicker, a 1997 Warren graduate and senior at Marian College in Fond du Lac, Wis., returned for his second year of work at the camp. Jason Love, a 2001 graduate of Antioch High and Todd Lazarski, winner of the Tom Pritchford Sportsmanship Award last spring, joined Merzlicker as instructors this summer.

"The best part of camp for me is seeing the kids improve throughout the camp," said Merzlicker.

Opinions varied among the participants as to what part of the camp was their favorite.

"I like the competition - it's intense," said Matt Kaufmann, who will be an eighth-grader at Viking this fall and who plays every day. "I've tried different sports and tennis is one of those games you can play and enjoy for a lifetime."

Gurnee resident and Woodland eighth-grader Nick Smith, plans on playing high school tennis.

"I've been coming for three years now and I really like the competition," he said.

Every camp participant felt that Cohen and the other instructors at the camp were extremely nice and helpful.

"(Coach) Cohen is really nice," said Brit-tany Bernard, 11, an upcoming seventh-grader at Woodland Middle School. "He really helps a lot. We not only do a lot of drills, but we play a lot."

Mary Gouras, 14, an upcoming freshman at Warren, echoes those sentiments and plans to try out for Cohen's varsity squad as a freshman.

"He (Cohen) is really nice," said Gouras.

With the Junior Excellence Camp done for the year, the Warren Junior Open is the next event on the summer tennis calendar.

The Open will run from July 5-7 at the Almond Road campus.

All singles matches begin July 3 at 6 p.m., while doubles matches begin at 7 p.m.

Entry fee is $10 for singles and $4 per player for doubles. The entry deadline is July 3.

For further questions contact Greg Cohen at 599-4334.

Lightning, Jr. Bulldog baseball heading in same direction

By JOE PRUSKI
Correspondent

Two of the states premier little league baseball teams squared off in a regular season preparation game June 22 in hopes of raising their level of play before the post-season.

The Lake Villa Lightning and the Wauconda Junior Bulldog 11-year-old little league teams have proven to teams across the country that they have the ability to play at a level most teams can only dream of.

The Lightning have compiled a record of 24-8 in what head Coach Rich Coles believes is a "rebuilding year". One of the many highlights of the season for the Lightning took place at the Cary Invitational where they placed second in a field of teams from across the Midwest. Another bright spot for the Lightning came in the form of a first-place finish in its own tournament.

Coles believes the eight-team field for the event was "very competitive". Going into the state playoffs held this week in Kankakee, Coles is looking for a top-4 finish that would send his Lightning to the Little League World Series.

"We have a chance to finish in the top-4," Coles said. "We'll be keeping our best pitchers in and we'll be in our tournament rotation."

Coles also credits the coaching of his assistants Ken Ratajczyk and Jim Clancy with much of the teams success. The Lightning players include; Kevin Kelly, Ryan Unrein, Chris Utes, Adam Goetsch, Kyle Frye, Joe Burg, Kyle Stroup, Joey Debernardis, Bobby Norwick, Alex Coles, Randy Ratajczyk and Jimmy Clancy.

Meanwhile, Wauconda heads into the state playoffs already assured a spot in the Little League World Series due to a strong showing in a tournament earlier this year in Joliet where the Junior Bulldogs placed second.

Along with their second-place finish in Joliet, the Jr. Bulldogs succeeded in taking second in a Nebraska tournament where some of the top teams in the country competed. Their record in the league this year was 19-1 while sporting an overall record of 29-7. Their automatic bid to the Little League World Series will place them roughly among the top 100 teams vying for the national title at the end of July.

"Right now we're playing our best ball of the year," said head coach Jeff Jackson. "Our players 1-12 are hitting well."

The Wauconda coaches concurred in saying that the biggest factor of this year's ball club is character.

"Their the hardest working group of kids

I've ever had," said Assistant Coach Mike Miller.

Another important factor for the Junior Bulldogs is community support Jackson believes.

Wade Jackson and Dave Mottashed round out the coaching staff for Wauconda. Junior Bulldogs include; Rich Mascheri, Johnny Ryan, Jamey Carey, Jonathan Miller, Dan Meegan, Jeff Jackson, Peter Lesniewski, Jimmy Williams, Evan Bierman, Brian Siedlecki, Ben Mottashed and Luke Mottashed.

Desire, dedication, experience.

Three ingredients Antioch's Jason Love knows plenty about.

And all three ingredients are the focus for youth players participating in the Warren Jr. Excellence Tennis Camp this summer.

Love, who just graduated from Antioch High, is now in his second year of instructing at the camp.

"So far, so good," he said during the morning drills held at the Almond campus in Gurnee. "We've had another great turnout. It's really an excellent camp, from the drills to the instruction offered. Plus it's a lot of fun, and that's the most important thing."

Love, heading to Illinois Wesleyan University this fall, was joined by fellow instructors, former Warren stars Todd Lazarski, winner of the Tom Pritchford Sportsmanship Award, and Scott Merzlicker, who just completed his junior campaign at Marian College in Fond du Lac, Wis.

"It's great to be around the kids," said Love. "They are all very enthused about the game. It's the closest ongoing program for a lot of kids in not only Gurnee, but the Antioch area as well. I attended it (the camp) myself for two years."

And the rewards have been numerous for Love, who eclipsed the 100-win plateau last spring while playing for ACHS.

"I'm going to try and play in as many tournaments as I can this summer," he said. "I'm very proud of my accomplishments at Antioch. I just want to try and keep improving my game and take it to the next level in preparation for IWU."

And don't look now, but one of the campers from Antioch, Ashley Jensen, looks like she might be following in the footsteps of Love's success.

Jensen, who just graduated from Emmons School in Antioch, is in her second year of attending the Warren Jr. Excellence Camp.

"It's a great camp," the soon-to-be freshman at Antioch High said. "You get to play a lot of different people. I like the drills, especially with serving. I want to play up to my ability and keep improving and this is a great camp to help you do that."

And just like Love said, so far, so good!

Antioch's Run for Freedom benefits ACHS track and field

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

It's only fitting that all of the proceeds from Antioch's 2001 Run for Freedom being held on July 4 will benefit the Antioch Community High School (ACHS) track and field. "The money will be used to purchase some new track and field equipment," said event organizer Mary Lou Toomey.

The 5K-run/fun walk is a USATF (United States of America Track and Field association) Illinois sanctioned event and certified course. The course is said to be challenging and takes place on residential streets.

"There is one minor change to the course in the Indian Trails subdivision," said Toomey. "The course has been re-certified since that change." She added that the change that causes her some concern is the time change. "The race is at 8 a.m. and not 8:30 a.m. this year. I'm a little worried that people will show up at 8:30 a.m. and it will all be over," she said.

There will be water stations at regular intervals, and this year there will be big digital clocks displaying the time at the three one-mile markers. "This will be better for the runners," said Toomey. "They will easily be able to see their times as they go past."

First place male overall and first place female overall will receive four tickets to a Chicago Cubs home game. Winners must be present; awards will not be mailed.

Additional awards will be given to the top three males and females in the age groups 11 and under, 12-14, 15-19, 20-24, 25-29, 30-34, 35-39, 40-44, 45-49, 50-54, 55-59, 60-64, 65-69, and 70 plus.

Registration may be done in person at the State Bank of The Lakes until July 3 from 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. for $10. Registration the day of the race is $15 and can be done from 6-7:50 a.m. at the intersection of Poplar Ave. and Cunningham where the race is scheduled to begin.

The first 1,200 registrants will receive complimentary T-shirts with their race packets. No pets, roller blades, skateboards or bicycles are allowed.

"The turn-out is really good this year," said Toomey. "We have 150 more people registered now than we did last year at this time."

Medical support will be available through the services of the Antioch Rescue Squad.

Signs will direct participants and those interested in watching the race to larger parking lots.

For more information call Toomey at 395-2700, or go to the bank's web page www.thisisyourbank.com.

Getting into the

'Grove'

Story by HELEN MANSFIELD Staff Reporter
Photos by SANDY BRESSNER

Nestled in the old Libertyville gravel quarry between Hwys. 137 and 21, the Independence Grove Forest Preserve, Lake County's newest outdoor recreation destination, has opened for its first summer season.

Activity, lots of it and in all varieties, is what the forest preserve is all about.

The 1,100 acre preserve is tucked into the Des Plaines River Valley, featuring a 115-acre spring-fed lake.

Independence Grove is user-friendly, but stays true to nature, featuring native wildflowers and foliage.

The Lakeside Trail boasts 5.5 miles of gently winding trails around the lake. The trails are made of crushed granite which provides the perfect cushioning for hikers, joggers and bikers.

For those with a more adventurous spirit, the Overlook Trail runs through some of the more scenic areas of the preserve and provides the perfect paved surface for in-line skaters.

If you find that the water is calling you, boats can be rented from the marina.

Outside watercraft is not permitted on the lake, but fishing boats, canoes, single and tandem kayaks, pedal boats and hydro-bikes are available daily for rental at the marina.

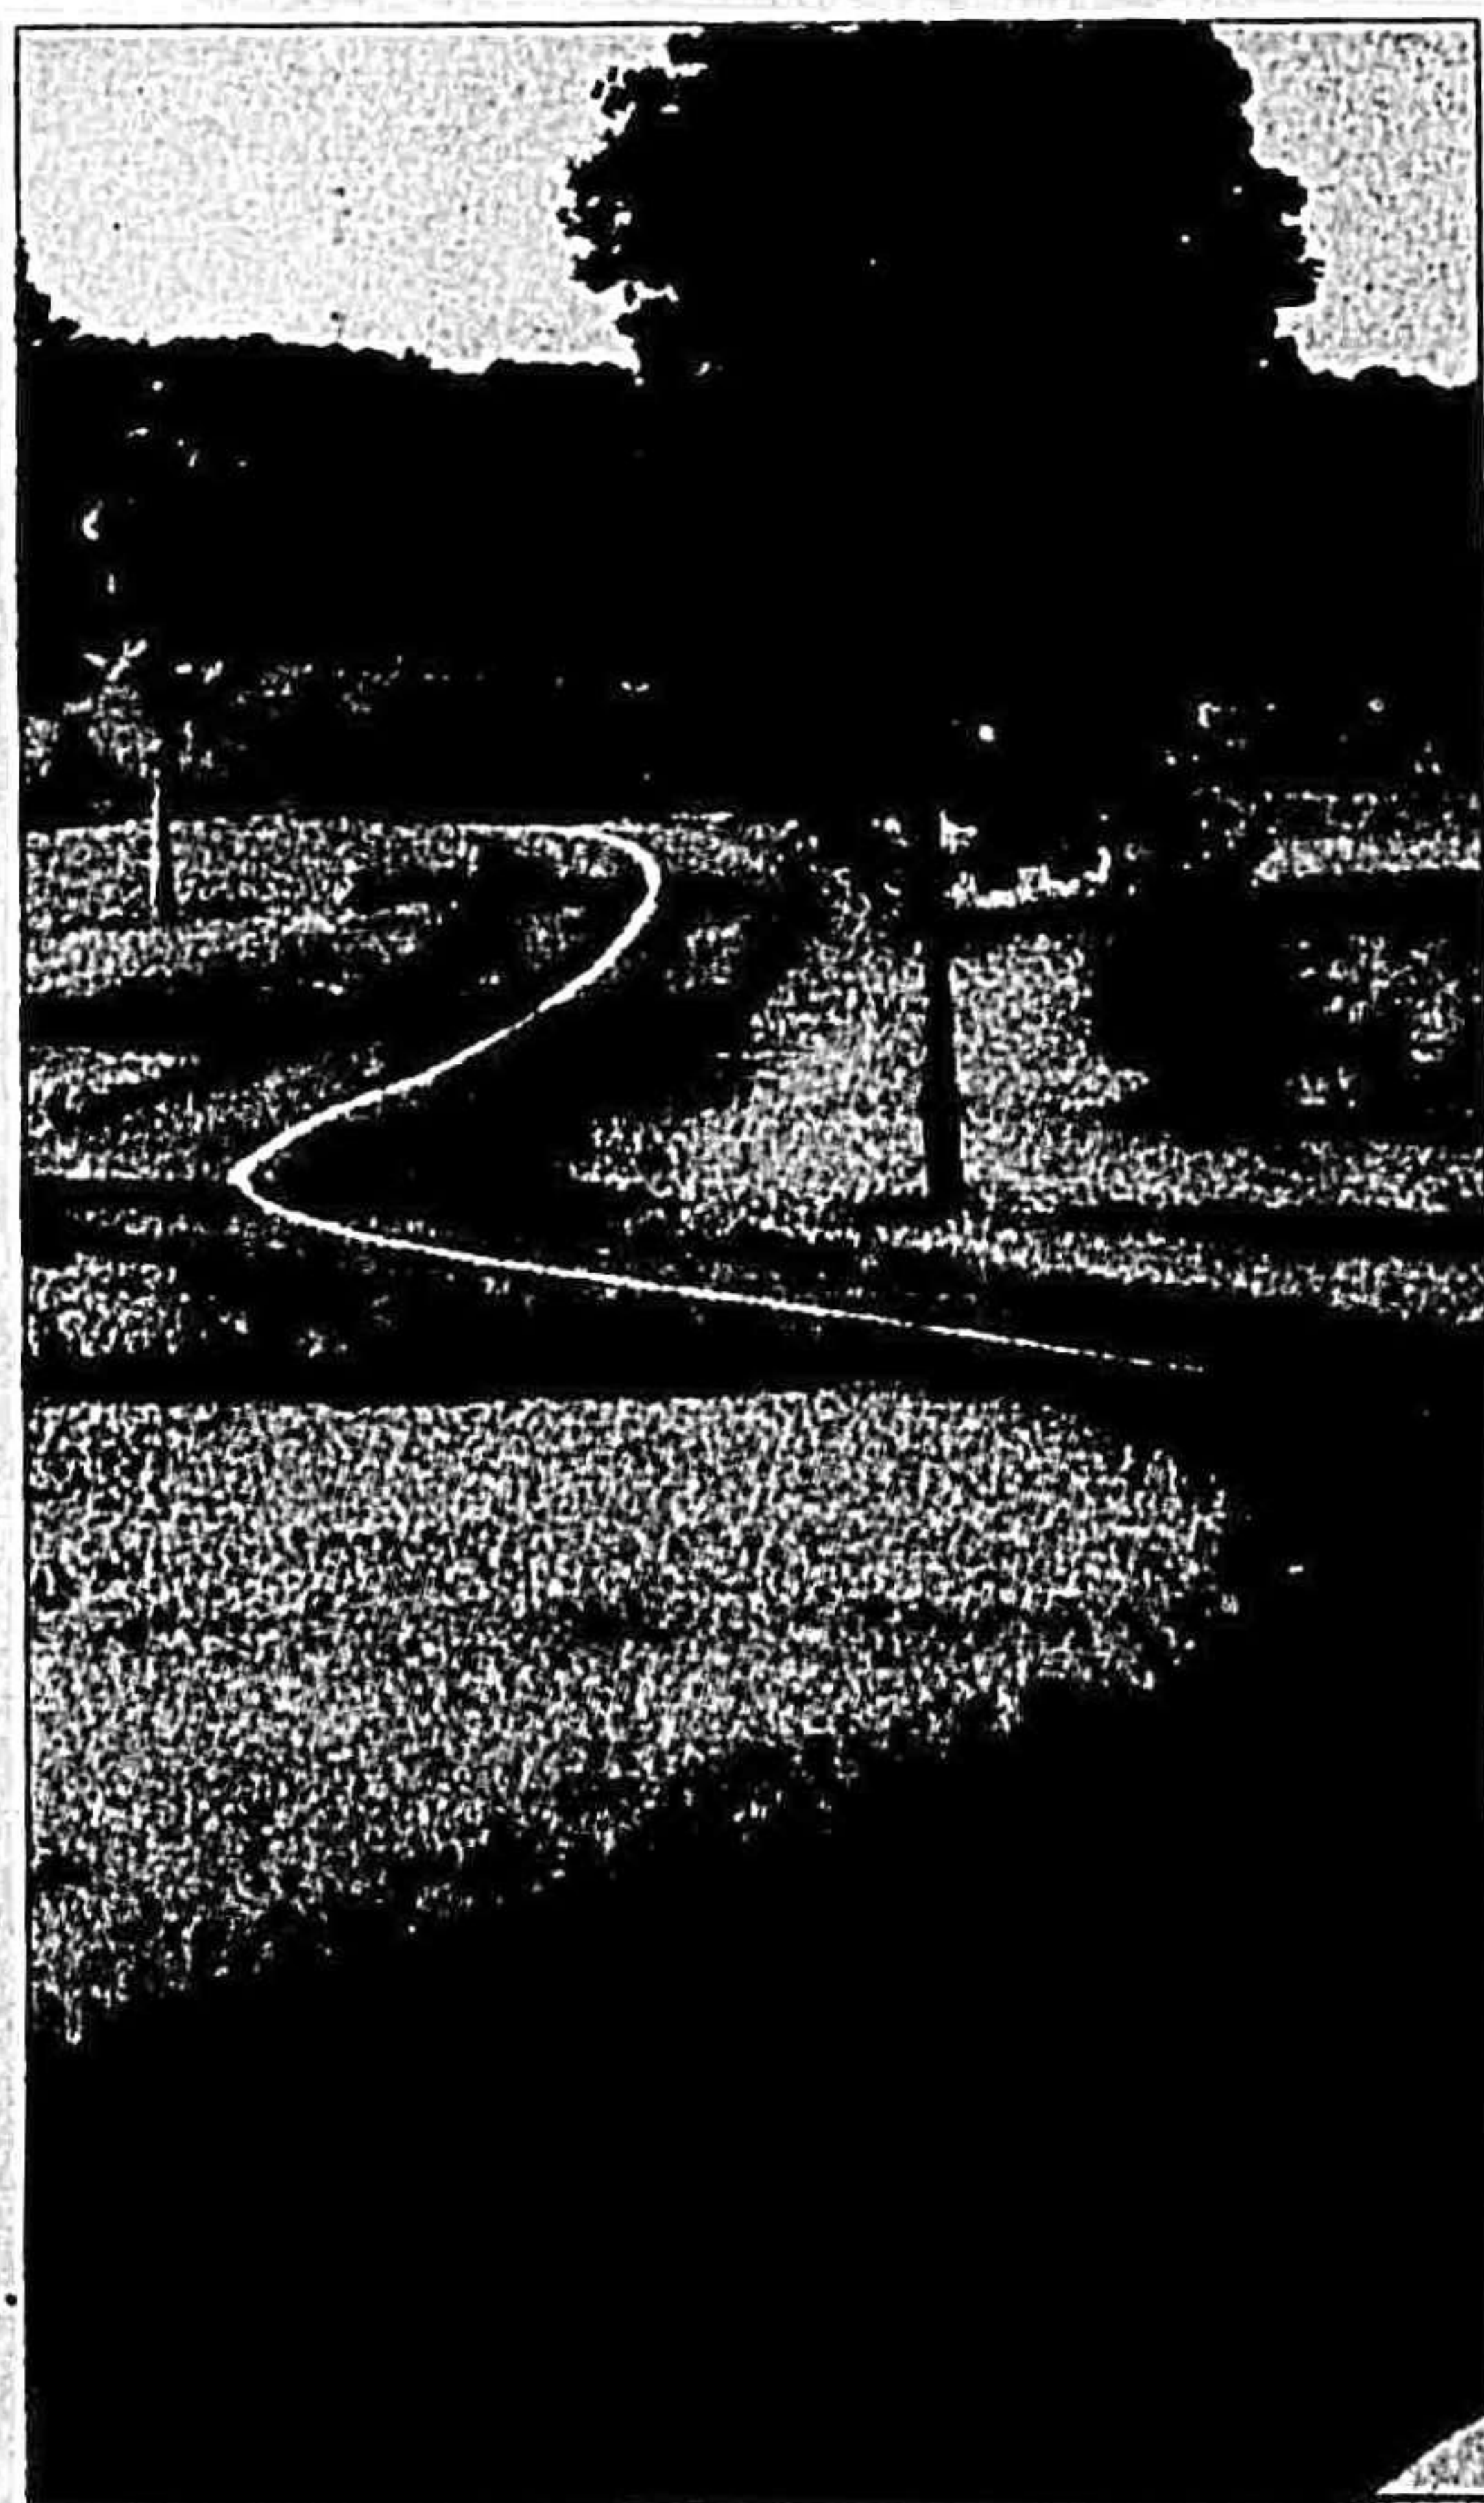

The lake provides a home for eight species of fish including musky, northern pike, black crappie, largemouth bass, channel catfish, walleye, bluegill and yellow perch.

All anglers are asked to participate in the preserve's "catch and release" program so the lake can remain stocked.

Skateboards, dogs and horses are not permitted in the preserve, but four-legged companions can use the Des Plaines River Trail (DPRT), which is only a short walk from the park.

Final plans for the DPRT will run 33 miles, the entire length of Lake County.

Independence Grove is open daily from 6:30 a.m. to sunset.

SPECIAL EVENT

President Bush issues proclamation

Naval Training Center to celebrate 90th Birthday with three-day festival

President George W. Bush has issued a proclamation congratulating the Sailors and staff of Naval Training Center Great Lakes on the Center's 90th anniversary. The proclamation reads in part: "Through your work molding young men and women into outstanding Sailors, you preserve the naval tradition of honor, courage and commitment: victory in war, security in peace. Your dedication to the Navy plays an essential role in protecting our country and in challenging young people to reach their full potential for reasons and causes greater than themselves."

More than 3.5 million sailors have received their initial basic training at Naval Training Center Great Lakes since the base opened July 1, 1911. President William Taft dedicated the station, Oct. 28, 1911. The dedication drew a crowd of more than 10,000.

Among some of Great Lakes most well-known alumni are the Sullivan Brothers; Jack Benny; Master Diver Carl Brashers, subject of the movie "Men of Honor"; Spencer Tracy; Harry Belafonte; and Bandmaster John Phillip Sousa, who founded Navy Band Great Lakes in 1917. The Golden 13, the Navy's first African-American officers were commissioned here in 1944, as well. Retired Justice William White of Chicago was one of these pioneering Sailors.

Naval Training Center, Great Lakes will celebrate its 90th Birthday with a three-day summer festival which is open to the public, June 29, 30 and July 1.

Visitors will have the opportunity to take a simulated ride in an F-18, try their luck at kicking for $30,000 cash, enjoy carnival rides, musical entertainment and a laser light and fireworks show.

The celebration begins with the time-honored recruit pass in review ceremony on historic Ross Field, Friday, June 29 at 9 a.m. Illinois Congressman Mark Kirk will serve as reviewing officer for the ceremony.

Performances by the Navy's elite Leap Frogs have been canceled.

The event will take the place of the training center's annual Fourth of July celebration. The renowned laser and fireworks show will conclude daily events both Saturday and Sunday evenings at approximately 9:30 p.m.

A new feature of this year's event will be "The Taste of Lake County," sponsored by the Lake County Chapter of the Illinois Restaurant Association. Restaurants from throughout the area will be selling a variety of their specialties to cure anyone's appetite. Taste of Lake County will be open from 11 a.m. to 8 p.m., Friday and 11 a.m. to 10 p.m., Saturday and Sunday. The public is reminded that there are no carry-ins of food or beverage items allowed.

A performance by Molly Hatchet highlights events on Navy Day, Friday, June 29. Joan Jett will kick off the evening's events Saturday, June 30 with a performance at 5:30 p.m. The Romantics will perform at 8 p.m. followed by the laser light show and fireworks finale.

The Smithereens will get the base rockin' Sunday, July 1 with a 3:30 p.m. performance. At 6 p.m., world-renowned rockers Cheap Trick will hit the stage. The Cheap Trick performance is part of the Navy's "Rock the Boat" concert series. The Navy Band Great Lakes summer concert series at 8:30 p.m., Sunday, provides a patriotic prelude to the laser light and fireworks show finale.

On both Saturday and Sunday, visitors can enjoy the "Gridiron Experience," with interactive football activities such as kicking field goals, returning punts, testing their throwing arms and even playing football theme mini-golf.

Family entertainment acts perform each hour of the festival along with roving entertainers on Ross Field to delight visitors of all ages.

For history buffs, the Great Lakes Naval Museum will have a large display of historic Navy items in the lobby of Ross Auditorium where a variety of Navy-related films and videos will be shown throughout the day.

The base's annual celebration attracts more than 50,000 people. This year's event will celebrate both the base's 90th anniversary and the nation's 225th birthday. Please note that no events are scheduled for July 3 or 4.

This free event is open to the public and is organized by the Navy's Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) Department. For further information about this event, call MWR at 688-2110, ext. 484 or visit www.ntcmwr.com.

Naval Training Center Great Lakes is located approximately 40 miles north of Chicago on Lake Michigan. Visitors attending the festival should enter through the main gate on Sheridan Rd., one-fourth of a mile north of Buckley Rd (Rt. 137).

CLASSES

'French for Travelers'

"French for Travelers and French Conversation" will take place on Saturdays, July 7-August 25, from 10-11:30 a.m. at Gorton Community Center, 400 East Illinois Rd., Lake Forest. The fee is $120, and registration is required by Monday, July 2.

The course is designed to enhance one's beginning knowledge of the French language, especially for those planning to travel abroad, with emphasis on useful vocabulary, pronunciation and oral practice.

Interested participants should register and pay by Monday, July 2. For further information, or to receive a program brochure, contact the Gorton office at 234-6060 or stop by weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

MUSIC

Recorder in concert

The Graue Mill and Museum will be sponsoring a special recorder concert Sunday, July 1, featuring members of the Zion Lutheran Church.

The recorder is the most important type of whistle flute. Its tone quality is soft and slightly reedy. Developed in the Middle Ages, by the 16th century, a complete "family" was formed, from treble to bass, and played an important part in the music of the Renaissance era. The famous composer Bach referred to it as the "German flute."

After discovering a common interest in the recorder, selected members of the Zion Lutheran Church decided to form a recorder consort and perform at church worship and secular programs.

The Mill is located in Oak Brook, on York Rd. 1/4 mile north of Ogden Ave. at York and Spring roads. Admission is $1.50 for children 3 and older, $3 for seniors and $3.75 for adults. The Mill and Museum is open 10 a.m.-4:30 p.m. every day except Mondays and holidays. For more information, call (630) 655-2090.

TOURS

Chicago tour planned

A trip to Chicago, titled "The Good Life, Chicago Style!" will depart from Gorton Community Center, 400 East Illinois Rd., Lake Forest, on Saturday, July 14. The motorcoach will leave at 9 a.m. and return at 3:30 p.m. The fee is $75 per person, based on a group of 25.

Led by Irene Overman Kreer, this tour will spotlight the many different aspects of living in Chicago, beginning with a look at the Gold Coast neighborhood, continuing on to see the 1891 Charley House, designed by Frank Lloyd Wright, and houses along Astor St. Participants will view a variety of other ways to live the "good life" in Chicago, as they see homes in a selection of Chicago neighborhoods, including downtown Chicago, where "home" may be an apartment, a condominium or an interesting converted loft. Lunch will take place on Navy Pier, followed by a short driving tour of "Suite Home Chicago," the city's latest exercise in public outdoor art in the summertime.

Interested participants should register and pay by Saturday, June 30. For further information, or to receive a program brochure, contact the Gorton office at 234-6060 or stop by weekdays between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

DANCE

Square dancing

Bachelor 'N' Bachelorettes of McHenry will be hosting two square dances in July.

The first, Friday, July 6, will be held at the Johnsburg Community Center in Johnsburg at 8:30 p.m. The caller will be Jerry Hill from Streamwood. Rounds begin at 8 p.m.

The second will be held Friday, July 20, at the Johnsburg Jr. Community Center in Johnsburg at 8:30 p.m. with Herb Oesterle calling. There will also be a luau. Rounds begin at 8 p.m.

For more information, call (847) 336-4738 or (815) 356-6285.

Dance scholarship

The 21st annual Carey Rose Winski Dance Scholarship Competition will be held this year on Sunday, October 14 at 11 a.m. in the Marjorie Ward Marshall Dance Center, 1979 S. Campus Drive in Evanston. The competition is open to any dancer male or female in the United States between the ages of 13 and 18. Scholarships totaling $1500 are given to the winners. The winners choose the schools for their further training.

Competitors participate in a one-hour classical warm up class and perform two three-minute solos, one in classical ballet (en pointe for girls) and one in any eclectic style—Jazz, Modern, Character, etc.

Application forms with detailed information on rules, regulations and travel information may be obtained by writing to the Carey Rose Winski Memorial Foundation, Inc., 69 Woodley Rd., Winnetka, IL 60093.

BOOK GROUP

Reading group meets at Volo Bog

Of Bogs and Books Reading Group continues its summer meetings at Volo Bog State Natural Area on July 5 and August 2 from 7-8:30 p.m. Adults share coffee, snacks and discussions of environmental readings. The selections continue the group's summer focus on Native American authors and researchers—On the Rez, by Ian Frazier in July and Skull Wars by David Hurst Thomas in August. Reservations are required; phone (815) 344-1294 for more information.

ART EXHIBITS

Greenbelt exhibits

The Greenbelt Cultural Center, 1215 Green Bay Rd., North Chicago, will open a new exhibit of watercolors by John Dioszegi July 5-Aug. 31. Primarily abstract, the paintings focus on color, composition and the fluidity of the medium.

There will be a free artist's reception Thursday, July 5, from 6-8 p.m. Refreshments will be served. No reservations required. For more information, call 689-1600.

THEATRE

The fabulous fifties

The Marriott Theatre in Lincolnshire, is proud to present "The Taffetas," now running through July 28.

Stroll down a musical memory lane when four singing sisters from Muncie, Indiana make their New York television debut in "The Taffetas." The production brings over 40 sock hoppin', be-bop-pin' hits and serenades with such Hit Parade classics as—"Shh-Boom," "Mr. Sandman," "Johnny Angel," "Sincerely," and the "Tennessee Waltz."

Tickets are from $33 to $38 and students and seniors receive a $5 discount (excluding Friday and Saturday performances). Performances are held on Wednesdays at 2 and 8 p.m., Thursdays and Fridays at 8 p.m., Saturdays at 5 and 8 p.m. and Sundays at 2:30 and 7 p.m. Call 634-0200 for reservations. For additional information, visit the web site at www.MarriottTheatre.com.

It's raspberry-picking time at Wauconda Orchards

Baseball. Hotdogs. Apple pie (of course). And raspberries. That's right: I said raspberries. The arrival of summer also means that it's now time for the first pick-your-own-raspberry crops at Wauconda Orchards. This year's official raspberry picking season kicks off on the 4th of July.

Once again, Mother Nature has blessed Wauconda Orchards with almost perfect weather for the 2001 raspberry season—and that should mean a good crop of raspberries this year. "This is the second straight year that we've enjoyed a mild winter and a warm, wet spring," noted Rick Breeden of Wauconda Orchards. "That's the perfect combination for growing raspberries in this climate. The crop should be plentiful and the berries should be extremely tasty."

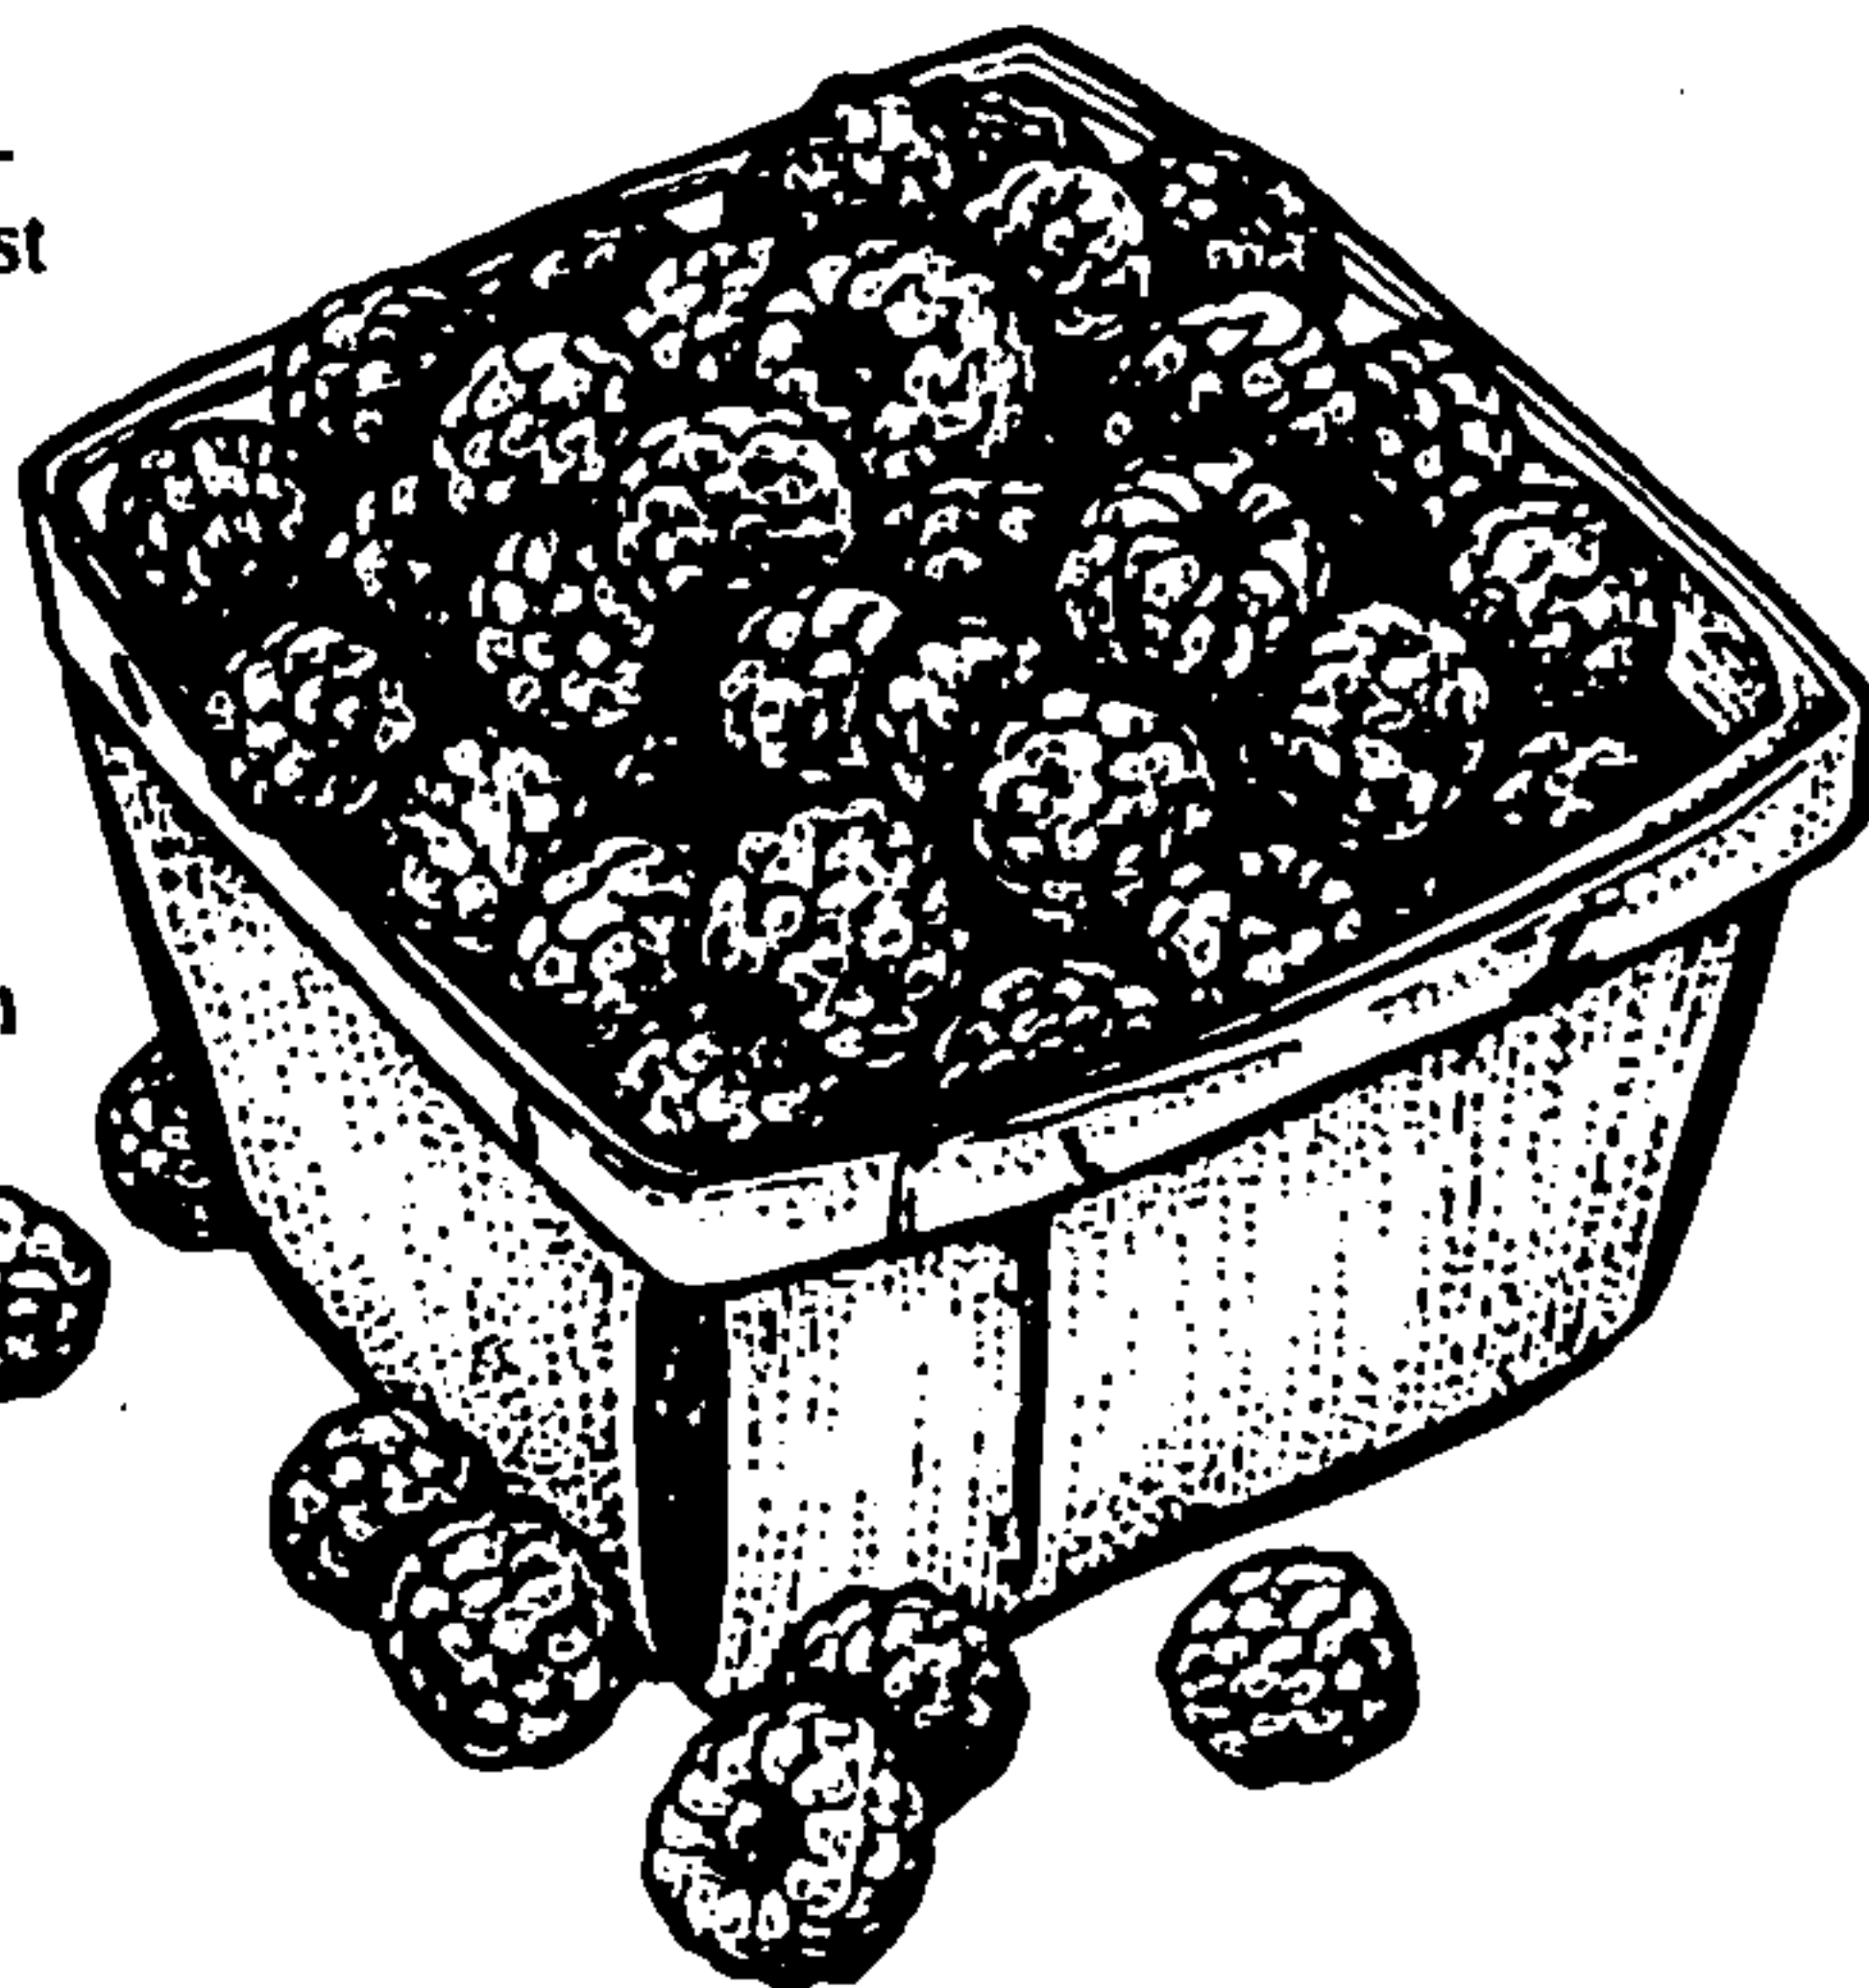

While the 4th of July is the traditional first day of raspberry season, Breeden expects the very best berries to be ready for picking between July 7 and 10. He encourages all pick-your-own enthusiasts to plan to pick the first or second week because the summer raspberry season in northern Illinois is very short one, lasting no more than 10 to 14 days. Pick your own raspberries at Wauconda Orchards are available for $6 per quart.

Marge and Dick Breeden, Rick's parents, first planted Wauconda Orchards with apple trees in 1951. Those early apple trees yielded their first pick-your-own crop in 1959. Now, 42 seasons later, Wauconda Orchards is one of the few active orchards that remain in Lake County.

Many customers now shop on Wauconda Orchards' web site; now capable of processing on-line orders. "The advent of the Internet now makes it very convenient for customers to stay in touch. It's a great way to get the most current information on picking conditions during raspberry and apple picking seasons. The site also allows our customers to shop for all the items in our popular catalog, something they really seem to enjoy."

Wauconda Orchards' Apple Kitchen Café serves breakfast and lunch Wednesday through Sunday from 7 a.m.-5 p.m. Wauconda Orchards is closed on Mondays and Tuesdays until the beginning of apple picking season. For more information, call Wauconda Orchards at 1 (800) 36-APPLE or log onto their web site at www.waucondaorchards.com.

Union, Confederacy renew battle at Lakewood Forest Preserve

The boom of the cannons, the crack of rifle shots, and the galloping cavalry hooves will resonate again as Union and Confederate soldiers battle it out in the tenth Annual Civil War Re-enactment at Lakewood Forest Preserve near Wauconda, on Saturday, July 7 from 4:30-9 p.m. and Sunday, July 8 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. This exciting family event, sponsored by Lake County Discovery Museum, will transport visitors back to the 1860s as they enter the gates of the largest Civil War encampment in Illinois, complete with a battleground where over 750 re-enactors will recreate a Civil War battle.

The Weekend's activities kick off on Saturday evening with one-hour, re-enactor-led, guided tours, which depart from the museum every 15 minutes, through the camps just as the evening fires are lit. Each stop offers informative and entertaining demonstrations and stories and music. The evening culminates at dusk with a spectacular firing of the artillery on the battlefield. Tour cost is just $6 for adults and $3 for youth ages 6-17. Reservations and pre-payment are required. (Tours are not recommended for children under the age of 6.) Please call (847) 968-3400 to reserve your spot for this exciting evening.

On Sunday, Civil War history will vibrantly come to life through on-going performances and demonstrations including military, medical, family life, and civilian professions. Sutlers, Civil War-era vendors, will be providing interesting event shopping opportunities.

The Cavalry, Artillery and Infantry will all be conducting live drills in preparation for the narrated and choreographed full battle re-enactment that will be presented from 2-3 p.m. Enhancing the 2001 event will be a new sound system to enable all guests on both sides of the battlefield to hear the re-enactment narration clearly.

Also, visitors will want to be sure to stop by this year's new "Interactive Camp," providing a family-oriented, hands-on opportunity to experience a variety of games, crafts, drills and activities from the Civil War era. Admission cost is just $7 for adults and $3 for kids and includes admission to Lake County's award-winning Discovery Museum.

Food services and free parking will be available both Saturday evening and Sunday. Lakewood Forest Preserve is located on Hwy. 176 at Fairfield Road, 4 miles west of Libertyville and just east of Wauconda. For information please call (847) 968-3400.

World War II pilot to relate A-bomb trip

A quiet hero of World War II is coming to Grayslake Saturday, July 7, to sign copies of his personal account of the B29 atomic bomb mission that ended World War II.

Fred Olivi, co-pilot of the "Bock's Car" that made the historic bomb mission, will autograph copies of "The Mission that Almost Failed."

A 23-year-old officer at the time, Olivi and his 10 flight mates made the run two days after the first atomic bomb was dropped by the "Enola Gay" on the Japanese mainland Aug. 6, 1945.

Olivi and pilot Charles D. Albury overcame a fuel pump malfunction that reduced their fuel to a dangerous level, thick clouds and a miscommunication with another airplane to drop the second A-bomb on a secondary target.

After the war, Olivi joined the City of Chicago as an engineer, eventually becoming the chief engineer for Chicago's many bridges. He is a resident of Beverly, a far south suburb.

Olivi will be at Art 'n Blooms, 241 Center St., Grayslake, from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Besides his book, there will be a variety of World War II aviation prints on display and for sale during the signing.

The Bristol Renaissance Faire is a magical 16th-century Tudor village that will come alive on June 30 and continue for six weeks. The Faire features costumed performers, arts and crafts, kid's kingdom, food and more. Call 395-7773 more additional information.

Time travel becomes a reality at the 14th Annual Bristol Renaissance Faire. This scamper through 16th-century Elizabethan England kicks off on June 30 and runs through August 26 in Kenosha.

The Bristol Renaissance Faire boasts a beautiful 25-acre site, 16 stages of continuous activity and over 1000 costumed performers who romp, ramble and roam through shaded forest and along village paths that wind through the shire. The Faire offers food, fantasy and fun for everyone during the nine-weekend festival. Musicians, jugglers, sword fighters, comedians, storytellers, jousts on horseback and more are assembled to provide over 150 performances daily. You may actually come face to face with Queen Elizabeth I herself.

"At the Bristol Renaissance Faire, you will be completely surrounded by world class, live, interactive entertainment," says Ron Scot Fry, Artistic Director for the Faire. "We're bringing back the very best of earlier seasons and adding amazing new acts."

• New shows such as hypnotist Paul Knight, Master of the Mind, and an enchantingly funny version of William Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream."
• Special guest stars—The Faire is thrilled to include limited engagements by Magical, Mystical Michael, The Singing Executioners and Sound and Fury. Outstanding musical guests include The Rogues, Owain Phyfe and Kat Eggleston.

Arriving at an Enchanted Forest near you

Bristol Renaissance Faire offers six weeks of historical entertainment starting June 30 wild and raucous treasure hunt with Jane the Phoele and Pirate School with the Swashbuckling Seadogs.

• The Minstrels of Mayhem are again 'a-hem'ing' their madcap way as Molly and the Tinkericker into your hearts and across your funny bones. Over 170 artisans from around the world are assembled in a Tudor-style fine arts and crafts market. The Bristol Renaissance Faire is rated yet again in the "Top Show Recommendations" category of The Network, a leading nationwide arts and crafts magazine. Rare and one-of-a-kind items include hand-blown glass, jewelry, hand-spun clothing, hammered pewter, candles, soaps and scented oils, carved wooden toys, hand-tooled armor and much more.

After a 10-year absence, brass rubbing is back. Seven Ages Arts, working with Brasswax, is there to help you and your family rub history the right way. With dozens of beautiful and fascinating images to choose from, you too can make your own brass rubbing.

Go on a culinary world tour, featuring food and beverage to appeal to all tastes. The Faire chefs are busy preparing your favorites—fresh roasted turkey legs, savory simmered garlic mushrooms, English fish & chips, grilled chicken sandwiches, steak-on-a-stake, mile-high fruit-filled ice cream crepes, corn-on-the-cob and refreshing Italian ice, just to name a few.

Journey back to 16th-century England every Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., rain or shine. The Bristol Renaissance Faire is located just west of I-94 near the Illinois/Wisconsin border in Kenosha. For more information, call 395-7773 or visit the web site at www.renfair.com.

Keanu Reeves should be 'Furious'

You can't watch TV nowadays without seeing the commercial's fast cars, spectacular street racing, a loud Limp Bizkit tune, and a relatively unknown cast. But if you're like me, you probably thought, "Haven't we seen this done before?" Yes, we have.

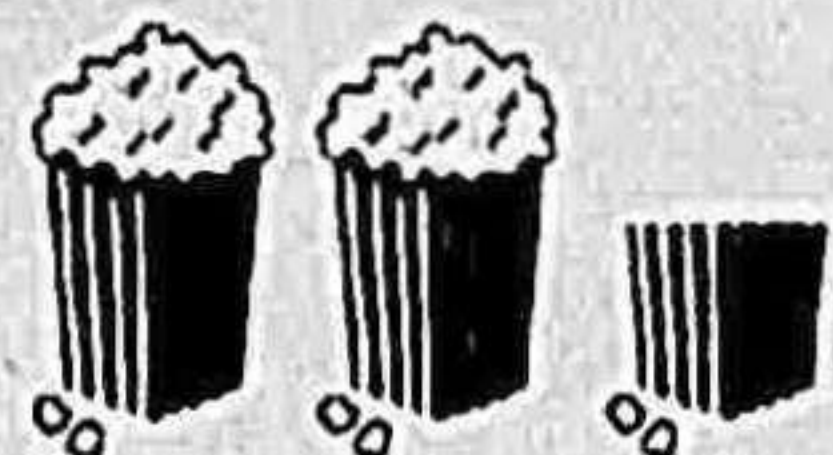

Following on the heels of recent racing duds "Driven" and "Gone in 60 Seconds," "The Fast and the Furious" is slightly better than its predecessors. However, the film's similarity with others doesn't end with the racing genre. The movie was strikingly similar to "Point Break" (the 1991 Keanu flick), except in "Furious" we gain insight into California racer-robber lifestyle instead of California surfer-robber life.

"Furious" is set in Los Angeles, so naturally the people are pretty and the cars are awesome. Paul Walker plays Brian, an undercover cop investigating truck hijackings. He poses as a racing team member and is soon racing and chasing the hulking Dominique Toretto played by Vin Diesel. Rival street gangs turn cars into weapons and take the war to the highways and byways of L.A.

Brian finds himself in jeopardy when the other members begin to suspect an impostor within their ranks.

Walker and Diesel turn in Keanu-like performances, complete with monotone utterances and slurring sounds. The script is so poorly written that it serves up more laughs and giggles, and over-the-top action scenes that make you say, "That would NEVER happen," right out loud.

Admittedly, the film does have some nice eye candy. The race scenes, the cars, and that nighttime L.A. skyline make for a nice backdrop. It still can't hide a terrible script and bad acting. In one scene, Walker asks his captain for more time to work on the case, the Captain responds in utter seriousness, "Time? You want time, get a magazine, we don't have time here." This is just one of the not-so-memorable moments of the hour and a half ride.

In the end, I'll admit that movies are an escape. Sometimes it's nice to go to the movies and just kick back. Sometimes we're not in the mood for a three-hour epic. In that scenario, "Furious" is worth the $8 admission. But if afterwards you feel the need to put the pedal to the metal, remember, it's just a movie.

'Big, The Musical' examines dynamics of growing up

Big, The Musical," playing at Drury Lane Oakbrook Theatre through Aug. 5, is one of those be-careful-what-you-wish-for dramas.

As the title implies, this is the singing-and-dancing version of film "Big," a Twentieth-Century Fox comedy starring Tom Hanks. Gary Griffin directs this often-entertaining production featuring Rod Thomas as Josh, a typical 13-year-old who, through the magic of a mechanical carnival fortune teller, is transported physically into the body of a mature adult—though his chronological age remains unchanged.

Bypassing the growing-up years has its drawbacks, as the New Jersey lad quickly learns. Fortunately, he falls into the "perfect job" as an executive in charge of product development/research at a failing toy company. No one suspects the reasons behind his uncanny knack for picking out winning toys.

Josh's gentleness and naiveté, however, get him into trouble when the marketing director, wonderfully played by Susan Moniz, finds him irresistibly attractive, especially when he brings out her little girl self. The hilarious bunk-bed scene, straight from the movie, highlights Josh's vulnerability. It also showcases some of the musical's best songs, from "Let's Not Move Too Fast" to "Stars" to "Little Susan Lawrence."

Act II opens with an enthusiastic but expendable rap number by the ensemble's youngest members.

On the other hand, a real winner is the whimsical "Fun," in which Josh and his boss, MacMillan (Roger Mueller) enjoy themselves with a little duet on a gigantic piano keyboard, which they "play" by doing a little soft shoe on the various keys. Another delightful scene involves Josh getting acquainted with Susan's protective inner circle of friends.

Chris Herzberger does a good job as Billy, Josh's loyal playmate. Max Quinlan has some surprising scenes as the Young Josh. Meanwhile, Paula Scrofrano, as Josh's mother, turns in a sensitive performance.

Ticket information about "Big, The Musical" is available at (630) 520-0111. —By Tom Witom

Local artist holds solo show

Up in years with a heart for art, the works of local artist Betty R. Drapalik will be featured in solo exhibit at the Jack Benny Center for the Arts, 39 Jack Benny Dr. in Waukegan, from June 29 through July 27. The public is invited to an artist reception on Saturday, July 7 from 2-4 p.m. Admission is free. Light refreshments will be served.

Betty has been working to create an interest in art and other artists in the community. She is exhibit chairman for the Lakes Region Watercolor Guild and a Fine Arts consultant with the Green Belt Cultural Art Center in North Chicago. She is long time member and past president of the Lake County Art League, a member of numerous other art organizations, including the Deerpath Art Association, Kenosha Art Association, Northwest Area Arts Council, "Bloomin' Artists," and a life member of the Midwest Watercolor Society. Anyone interested in finding out more about the Lakes Region Watercolor Guild or "Bloomin' Artists" can leave a message at 662-2617. All serious inquiries will be answered.

Student exchange organizations seek host families

Open the door to international understanding in your community

American Intercultural Student Exchange

Host families for international high school students are being sought by American Intercultural Student Exchange (AISE), a nonprofit, educational foundation, for the 2001/02 school year. Select your student now and begin your relationship with an international teenager. AISE is committed to the belief that education and understanding are the keys to fostering world peace. This begins when you invite and exchange student to live in your home.

Host families provide a room and food for their student and a loving, supportive atmosphere where the student can discover American traditions and experience cross-cultural understanding. Students arrive in August, speak English, attend the neighborhood high school, and have their own medical insurance and spending money.

Those interested in hosting a student, should contact Anne McGowan, Marketing Coordinator at (888) 247-3872 or visit the web site at www.aise.com.

Pacific Intercultural Exchange

Bring the world to your doorstep - host an international high school exchange student for the coming school year.

Families of all types enjoy hosting an international son or daughter including retired couples, single parent families, and two-parent families.

P.I.E. has students arriving from 10 different countries - Brazil, Germany, Vietnam, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Venezuela, Thailand, Slovenia, China, and Mexico. They range from the ages of 15 to 18, with various interests and hobbies matched to your family's hobbies and interests.

The students will begin arriving the first weekend in August to attend local high schools. They speak English, are fully insured and have their own spending money for clothes, entertainment, and other expenses. Host families agree to provide room, board, and hugs and to include the student in various family activities.

For more information about hosting one of these teens, call Pacific Intercultural Exchange at (888) PIE-USA1 right away.

Trust/Share High School Exchange Program

This past Mother's Day, Priscila Suzuki of Brazil gave her host mother, Terese Galey, a special gift by asking if she can call her "Mom." "This is the first student of many that our family has hosted to ever ask to call me mom," states Galey. "I was so honored to think that she wants me to be her North American Mother!"

Priscila's North American "Mother" experience was made possible by the SHARE! High School Exchange Program, sponsored by Educational Resource Development Trust (ERDT), a nonprofit educational foundation that creates opportunities for greater understanding between peoples of the United States and peoples of the world.

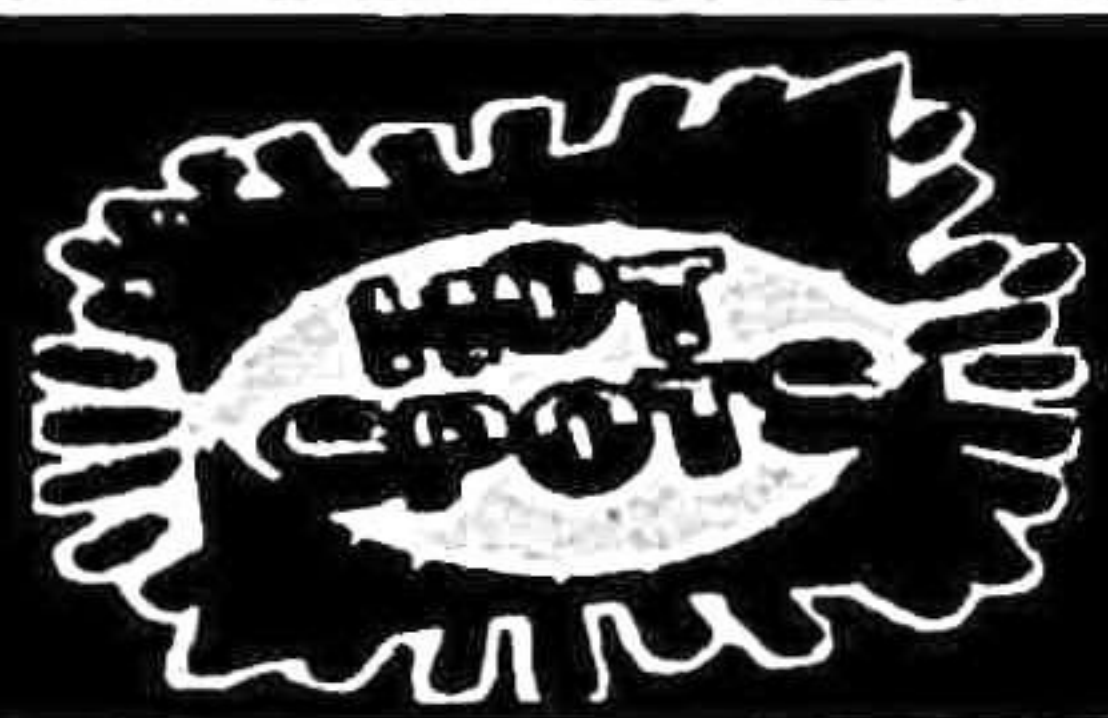

If you have room in your hearts and room in your home, the SHARE! High School Exchange Program is seeking families to host exchange students from more than thirty different countries during the upcoming school year. The students will arrive in August and will stay with the host family for one semester or until the end of the school year. They are in need of caring American families (families with small children or teens, "empty nest" families, retired couples and single-parent families) to provide a bed and meals as well as friendship, understanding and a genuine desire to share the American way of life with a youngster from overseas. The exchange students, who are between the ages of 15 and 18, speak English, are covered by medical insurance and have spending money for their personal expenses. Families are able to review student applications and select the student they feel will match their own interests.

The SHARE! High School Exchange Program is sponsored by Educational Resource Development Trust (ERDT). For more information, call Terese Galey, Midwest Regional Administrator, at (800) 772-3738.

Sunday afternoon fun

Hole-in-one interrupts politics

Geary

In a long career in politics, Norm Geary had his share of victories.

Scoring a hole-in-one, though, ranks near the top for thrills, admits the former Lake County Board chairman and Avon Township supervisor.

Playing in a threesome at Renwood Golf Course, Round Lake Beach, Geary chose a driver to tee off on the second hole, 151 yards away and protected by a large sandtrap.

"I thought of using a No. 3 wood, but at my age I felt a little more weight would make sure I cleared the trap, related Geary, 78, a resident of Antioch.

The skies, June 22 were overcast and there was a moderate breeze. Geary was settled into his game, having played the back nine first. His drive headed straight for the flag.

"I saw the whole thing," exclaimed one of his partners, Jim Cessaroni. "The ball bounced a couple of times on the green and rolled in the cup. Didn't touch the flag stick." Another witness was Ray LeCroix, retired Gurnee Public Works Dept. employee who used to be interested in politics before taking up golf as a nine-month sport.

Geary finished with a respectable 45-40-95. Enjoying an after-golf sandwich, was Geary talking about his ace? No way. He delved into politics after telling a Lakeland Newspaper reporter how he ached No. 2.

Assisted living addition planned

Legat Architects completed the design of a 60-unit assisted-living center at Rolling Hills Manor, Slovak American Charitable Association's skilled nursing facility in Zion.

The new two-story, 48,100 square foot addition, called Rolling Hills Place, will comprise studio, alcove, one and two bedroom residences. Amenities include a spa, wellness center and four activity center or "knuckles," which help residents maintain social interaction

Area schools looking to lose big if Central Range fails

By HELEN MANSFIELD
Staff Reporter

Looking to generate more than $6.5 million annually in net positive property tax revenues for both Grayslake School Districts 46 and 127 and Fremont District 79, the Central Range development plan could have huge positive impact on those area schools.

If the proposed 900-acre plan does not go through in its preliminary stages, some argue it could be to the detriment of those districts.

Chairman of the Grayslake Economic Development Commission (EDC) Phil Harris unveiled the Central Range plan to members of the Village Board, giving them an overview.

The majority of the development would be predominantly non-residential with a mix of office, light industrial and commercial development.

Check points set for driver safety

Del Re

Looking to prevent July 4 holiday motor-ing accidents, Sheriff Gary Del Re has scheduled three roadside safety and sobriety checks.

Beginning at 10 p.m., Friday, June 29 and running until 3 a.m., Saturday, June 30, sheriff's deputies, State Police and officers from the Round Lake Park/Hainesville police dept. will be stationed at Rte. 120 and 134.

From 10 p.m., Saturday, June 30, to 3 a.m., Sunday, July 1, deputies and officers from the Grayslake police dept. will man a safety-sobriety check at Rte. 120 and Lake St., Grayslake.

At 10 p.m. Tuesday, July 3 deputies and state troopers will be checking for safety and DUI at Lewis Ave. and Wadsworth Rd. until 3 a.m., Wednesday, July 4.

Last year in the week surrounding the Fourth of July Holiday, 92 accidents were recorded. Of those, 20 included injuries and there was no fatality. Police made 26 DUI arrests

Illinois FIRST projects total $1.2 million in Lake County

Gov. George H. Ryan announced that he is releasing $1,267,500 in Illinois FIRST funding for projects in Lake County, including $300,000 to the Village of Winthrop Harbor to make storm sewer improvements and drainage corrections at its municipal park. This Illinois FIRST project was initiated by State Sen. Adeline J. Geo-Karis, R-Zion.

Other Illinois FIRST grants announced by Ryan:

- $150,000 to the Village of Mundelein to construct the foundation and frame of its new police station. The village is contributing $5.79 million to this project. This project was initiated by State Rep. Andrea Moore, R-Libertyville.
- $150,000 to Lake County to make improvements to Midlothian Rd. This project was initiated by State Sen. William E. Peterson, R-Long Grove.
- $100,000 to Barat College to implement the Whirlwind Project which provides professional development for teachers. The Dr. Scholl Foundation is contributing $25,000. This project was initiated by State Sen. Terry Link, D-Vernon Hills.
- $80,000 to the Village of Lindenhurst for storm sewer installation and curbing restoration/replacement in the Seven Hills Subdivision. The village is contributing $1.42 million. This project was initiated by State Rep. Timothy H. Osmond, R-Antioch.
- $50,000 to the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago to construct the Petersen Family Sports Center. This project was initiated by Geo-Karis.
- $50,000 to the Winthrop Harbor School District 1 to make computer system improvements. This project was initiated by Osmond.
- $50,000 to the City of Lake Forest to study the feasibility of constructing a bridge for bicyclists and pedestrians crossing U.S. Rte. 41 at or near Old Elm Rd. and Westleigh Rd. This project was initiated by State Rep. Susan Garrett, D-Lake Forest.

- $50,000 to Waukegan Township for electrical work, carpeting, roof repairs and to install automatic doors at both entrances of the Township office, bringing it into compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act. This project was initiated by Garrett.
- $50,000 to the Lake County Forest Preserves to reimburse itself for exhibit renovation costs at the Lake County Discovery Museum. This project was initiated by Moore.
- $20,000 to William Raney Harper College to construct a new science center. This project was initiated by Link.
- $14,500 to Shimer College to renovate the electrical infrastructure in Hutchins Hall. This project was initiated by Garrett.
- $13,000 to Lake Forest LEAD to develop and deliver a program to heighten awareness about and increase avoidance from "date rape" and "club" drugs. This project was initiated by Garrett.
- $10,000 to the YWCA of Lake County to purchase three computers and to install new telephone cables. This project was initiated by Geo-Karis.
- $10,000 to the Bonnie Brook Fire Protection District to purchase a defibrillator. The district is contributing $17,200. This project was initiated by Osmond.
- $10,000 to the Lake Forest Hospital to purchase 2,400 cholesterol screening kits for the CareCoach mobile health program. This project was initiated by Garrett.
- $10,000 to the Lake Bluff School District 65 to purchase and install new playground equipment at the site of West School in Knollwood. This project was initiated by Garrett.

Great Lakes hosts Free Summer Concert Series

Public invited to see Navy Band perform

In the tradition of Lt. Cmdr. John Philip Sousa, Navy Band Great Lakes will host a series of Summer Band Concerts on historic Ross Field at Great Lakes.

Created in 1917 by Lt. Cmdr. John Philip Sousa, Navy Band Great Lakes has performed for thousands of audiences throughout the Midwest. Since first organized at Naval Training Center Great Lakes, the band has represented the pride and professionalism that has become synonymous with the United States Navy. During Sousa's years as band director, the band would stage spectacular shows on Ross Field, with as many as 1,500 Navy musicians. The concerts would draw thousands of visitors to the base from the Chicago and Milwaukee areas.

Navy Band Great Lakes is in its 84th year of continuous naval service and is currently under the direction of Lt. Kevin Bissel.

Comprised of 45 professional Navy musicians, the band operates in an 11-state area stretching from Michigan to North Dakota. A top-notch military ceremonial unit, the band performs concert band literature, music from Broadway, film soundtracks and traditional marches in the style of its founder, John Philip Sousa.

The second concert in the series will be a patriotic prelude to the laser light and fireworks show celebrating Naval Training Center, Great Lakes' 90th Birthday, Sunday, July 1 beginning at 8:30 p.m. The concert is part of a three-day open house event celebrating the base's 90th anniversary. The event also includes the Taste of Lake County, carnival rides and displays of Navy heritage.

EDITORIALS

Saving farms a worthy goal, starting now

Until recently, farmland preservation has not been a high profile pursuit in Lake County. Urban sprawl in the form of subdivisions and strip malls has been eating up working farms at a steady pace for more than three decades.

In response to cries for providing open space amid newfound suburbia, admirable strides have been made to preserve evidence of the county's once rolling countryside, mainly under of the auspices of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. But only about 10 percent of the district's 23,235 acres is given to agriculture.

Apart from the Forest Preserve District's aggressive land acquisition program is a growing movement to preserve farmland. Farmland preservationists are acutely aware that farm lands constitute open space, but open space as it is popularly known isn't farm land, not by a long shot.

No one appreciates the difference more than County Board Rep. Larry Leafblad (R-Highland Lake) and county Building Dir. Philip Rovang. They have become the driving forces behind efforts to save a significant amount of the county's remaining 60,000 farm acres. Due to its inclination to turn farm land purchases, commendable as they are to add to open space, into prairie restorations and wetlands rehabilitation, the Forest Preserve Dist. isn't looked upon as a force in farmland preservation.

Leafblad, as chairman of the Planning, Building and Zoning committee of the County Board, and Rovang are staking the drive to save farm land on using public funds for outright purchase of crop lands or purchase of development rights where the landowner can continue farming for a number of years.

We are aware of two other avenues for taking land out of the path of growth and development. One is the township open space program as evidenced locally in Libertyville Township and farm ownership by a privately funded preservation organization. The latter form is taking shape by the county's hiring of the American Farmland Trust to conduct a feasibility study of establishing a farmland preservation program. County Board Rep. Al Westerman (R-Waukegan), who also is Forest Preserve Dist. president, strongly endorses the feasibility study.

Rovang estimates that Lake County lost 44,000 farm acres between 1974 and 1997. Farm land given over to other uses amounts to an average of 1,900 acres per year, according to county statistics. Under broad definition of agricultural use, county records show 330 working farms. In reality, there are only a handful of families earning a livelihood off the soil. A large percent of the county's farm land is owned by corporations, institutions and speculators who hire custom farmers to work the land.

The farmlands preservation movement is on solid footing. The $20,000 cost of the feasibility study will be money well spent, in our opinion. The study should provide answers about future land use raised by the Lake County Farm Bureau, village officials who see the waving fields of corn and soybeans being replaced by their dreams of "progress" and building companies that view the land as "inventory."

Lake County life will be enriched beyond measure if a significant amount of the 60,000 acres still in agriculture is preserved. As Westerman stated, "The longer we wait, the less land will be left."

Living treasures part of our heritage

While on the subject of preservation, members of the Lake Villa village board are deserving of high fives for their decision to purchase the Lehmann mansion for restoration and use as a public place. Over the years, the $2.8 million for the distinguished columned structure, 60 adjoining acres and up to $1 million needed for rehabilitation will be appreciated by future generations more and more with each passing year.

Originally built as a "summer cottage" for the scion of a Chicago department store millionaire family, the stately structure is destined to take its place along other restored treasures of the past like the Genesee Theater, Adler Park Museum, original buildings at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, St. Mary of the Lake Seminary, Lakewood Farm Museum, Ft. Sheridan homes, the "Painted Lady" Victorian homes scattered about Lake County and other structures of historic value.

VIEWPOINT

Headgear shapes heads and minds

When Army brass selected black berets as official headgear, they apparently overlooked the fact that the soft round caps historically have been associated with artists, photographers, tuba players, sheep herding peasants and French guys who walk around with cigaret holders and poodles.

Not exactly, macho warrior types. Admittedly, a beret of a different color makes all the difference in the world. Special Forces personnel long have been identified with green berets, so much so the caps have been honored with an upper case G and B. Airborne units wear maroon berets. Army Rangers, not to be outdone in anyway by S.F., adopted black berets.

These guys are men apart, known for their fierce pride and individuality. They have made berets jaunty, thumb-in-your-eye symbols of America's military might. They WANT to be different. Oh, yeah. They are different. The fighting and killing specialists want to wear berets.

We're not so sure regular Army guys and gals, the grunts, the computer nerds in today's electronic forces, the office clerks, the human resource specialists, etc., WANT to wear berets. Frankly, they're going to look silly. And feel silly.

What about the Rangers, who've been awarded tan berets just to tell them apart from general issue? Tan berets. Isn't that the headgear of choice of quirky Hollywood directors? Pass the megaphones.

The Army's reportedly getting c.s. (sorry, an old barracks abbreviation) about how the black beret is to be worn. One inch above the eyebrows, folded down to above the ear. No unsightly beret bulges permitted.

Consigned to history are the time-honored and tested overseas caps, those rectangular slices of material that could be shaped, folded, easily cleaned and pressed; conveniently stored and carried on the person looped over a belt. The overseas cap could be shaped and positioned on the head in rather dapper angles as the individual chose. Or clamped firmly on head center. With colorful piping indicating the branch of service (infantry, armored, military police, medical, etc.), the overseas cap could be downright fetching.

Well, all you ex-G.I.'s and retired vets. This ain't your father's army. Not in a pig's eye can these World

BILL SCHROEDER
Publisher

War II, Korean and Vietnam guys picture themselves in a beret. Unless they earned the right to be different by serving in special units.

What's the world coming to, anyway?

Book signing

World War II aviation buffs can come face to face with history at a book signing from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday, July 7, at Art'n Blooms, 241 Center St., Grayslake. Fred Olivi, copilot of the B29 "Bock's Car" that dropped the second atomic bomb on Nagasaki, will autograph copies of "The Mission that Almost Failed," his personal account of the flight that ended the war. Olivi and his mates made the flight two days after "Enola Gay" dropped the first bomb on Hiroshima.

Waterway yo-yo

Excessive rainfalls the past month have created a yo-yo condition on the Fox River and Chain O'Lakes. A heavy rain results in no-wake restrictions clamped on by officials until flowage dissipates. For all practical purposes, no-wake rule eliminates boating and boating-related business. Fox Lake marina operator Ed Fox noted that he sales more than $2,000 worth of marine fuel on normal weekend day. When the no-wake rule is on, sales run about $300.

Fox says the elimination of the Wilmot Dam has created havoc with Chain flows. Foxway Water Agency Dir. Ingrid Enriquez and Frank Novak of the Stratton Dam at McHenry are the "heavies" coordinating the no wake calls, but they're only protecting property and promoting safety. What will it take to get Wisconsin to rebuild the Wilmot Dam?

Iron Mike returns

Judge Barbara Gilleran Johnson has signed up Coach Mike Ditka for her campaign team to win a 2nd Dist. Appellate Court seat. Ditka planned to return to Lake County Wednesday night for a Johnson kick off fund raising event at Highland Park Country Club. Ditka is no stranger. He had homes in Arbor Vista, Rte. 45, and Bannockburn during and after his tumultuous years with the Chicago Bears. A lot of Ditka's no nonsense ways and direct attitude toward life rubbed off on Judge Gilleran Johnson who is known for her no nonsense and direct ways on the bench.

One man's family

Try this for a group conversational opener: "My grandson plays for the Milwaukee Brewers." That'll turn some heads and make for lively chit chat. "Oh, yes. The Brewers. Having a pretty good season, aren't they?" Sure are, the proud grandfather responds. The laughs are genuine and no harm done when grandpa explains that grandson John plays on the local Little League Brewers. John's Brew Crew is having a pretty good season, too.

PARTY LINES

PARTY LINES, THE LAKELAND NEWSPAPERS' COLUMN OF POLITICAL OPINION, IS PREPARED FROM STAFF REPORTS.

GOP candidates eye new district seats

Indications are there won't be any shortage of candidates for the newly created Lake County Board district that will be filled in 2002.

The district was created for the Round Lake area in compliance with population requirements.

Avon Township Highway Comm. Pat Anderson is considering the race. Anderson was just re-elected last April. He grew up in a political family. His late father, Ed, was a former mayor of Grayslake and a long-time active Republican.

Don Newby, experienced in municipal government, an announced candidate is looking at his chances in a wide-open GOP primary. Bob Powers, Avon Republican chair, was the first to announce for the opening.

So far no word about Democratic candidates.

On the mend

Prominent municipal lawyer Bill Rosing is working hard on a rehabilitation program in recovering from affects of a stroke. Rosing has offices in Waukegan and is a resident of Libertyville.

Kohn leaves

Dave Kohn's departure as press secretary for Lt. Gov. Corinne Wood continues the pattern of high turnover in her busy of-

Nixon: Could face foe if party switch spurs Johnson.

Newby: Second to tell his interest in county post.

Jones: Waiting for word on possible Waukegan seat.

Wetland protector

State Rep. Karen May (D-Highland Park) is looking forward to leading an inquiry into wetlands regulation. She was named chair of the new Illinois Wetlands Task Force. Officials are trying to sort out which agency is responsible for wetlands after a Supreme Court decision took the feds out of the picture and turned wetlands jurisdiction over to the state.

Studying the future

Former North Chicago Mayor Jerry Johnson sees his political future in terms of the Lake County Board and a seat now held by Audrey Nixon, long-time board member and a Democrat. If Johnson runs, it won't be as a Democrat. No primary fight. Republicans have been talking about Johnson switching parties.

Remap wonderment

Another Democrat looking to the future is Waukegan Township Supervisor Patricia Jones. The popular leader could be a force for state representative if redistricting results in a mostly Waukegan legislative district. Jones is among the many who are wondering how the state remap will impact North Shore politics. Second-term State Rep. Susan Garrett (D-Lake Forest) knows that the GOP would like to redistrict her out of business.

vice. Kohn, a resident of Diamond Lake, handled district press duties for former Congressman John Porter. Press relations for Wood now are being handled by ex-WBBMer Teresa Pankovits assisted by Jennifer Battle.

Remembering Joe

One of the county's most enduring political golf outings, conducted for more than 50 years by Republicans from Cuba Township (Barrington) will be staged at two locations Friday, Sept. 7. Golf and lunch will be at Thunderbird Country Club and dinner will be at Biltmore Country Club. Golf and good times were originated by the legendary GOP powerhouse, the late Joe Welch. The event is a "must" for GOP politicians.

Are your dreams as bizarre as mine?

During recent nights I had a couple of dreams that have been recurring for many years, like "deja vu all over again."

A woman named Connie, who claims to be a dream expert, once told me, "A recurring dream is a message the subconscious is trying to get across, so it's important to pay attention." Each of us probably spends four to six years of his or her life in dreaming sleep!

One of mine is a college dream many share: You are scheduled for a final exam but can't find the classroom because you haven't been there all semester, or even cracked a book.

The other dream is akin to one I read in a golf-humor book years ago: It's called "the dream all golfers dream"—your ball has wound up on the floor of a telephone booth. The only way out is an opening at the top but inside the booth you can't take the full swing needed to extricate the ball.

In my golf dreams I am frustrated because I can't perform as well as when awake. And even when awake golf is frustrating, so I assume the dreams are merely carryovers into the land of Nod.

My most bizarre dream goes like this: "I

THE PFARR CORNER

find myself playing golf, not on a course but down Eighth Avenue in Kenosha, which happens to be the street on which, as a boy, I walked to and from St. George's grade school.

Eventually, one of my golf shots sails into the open door of the parish church and I must march in to find it. As I am walking up the aisle carrying my golf clubs, people kneeling and praying at Mass are frowning at me.

I notice the ball has bounced into the altar area. To play my next shot I must step over the communion railing and into the sanctuary where servers are lighting candles and the priest is giving me a nasty look—and that's all I remember.

When I related it to the expert, Connie, she said, "That's a pretty good dream." I guess.

She suggested that golf, in the dream, reflects the game of life and that maybe I'm taking the latter too lightly and my subconscious disapproves. There I am interrupting Mass and the priest, an authority figure, is upset with me. So maybe it's time to give some attention to my spirituality, my own divinity, whatever that means.

I felt Connie was reaching a bit for an explanation. I prefer to think some dreams are frustrating and foolish because life often is frustrating and foolish. And I'm just glad I have weird, funny dreams and not nightmares.

A retired police officer tells me he still has dreams of chasing thugs down dark alleys in life-threatening situations.

Common dreams include flying, falling or being in a place stark-naked where everyone else is dressed.

Recently, I dreamed I was being chased down a dark street and not getting away because running in a dream is like trying to run while knee-deep in water.

So I suddenly spun around and whirled a karate kick at my pursuer—and awakened with a thud to find I had flung myself out of bed.

Two-party politics— are people tiring of it?

Like so many Americans, I have believed that the strength of American government was in maintaining a strong two-party political system.

A growing number of Americans believe that there are cracks in that system and they have lost faith in both political parties.

More than ever, people are saying things like, "what's the difference, you can't tell them apart;" or "both political parties cater to the special interests that control the political process and elect them." And on the recent phenomenon of candidates changing political parties after their elections, people say, "they switch just to suit and benefit their own political careers."

There is some truth to all of what people are saying.

The real strength of American government lies in our ability to adjust to the times and express the will of the people. Times change and, unfortunately, the political process isn't changing with the times. With so little enthusiasm for the political parties, is it time to look to change the ways we elect political leaders?

I believe that we are at that crossroad. If there is one issue that has solidified the notion that the political parties have ignored the will of the people, it is the unwillingness to enact meaningful campaign financing reform. That one important issue is making people rethink the invincibility of the two-party political system.

SEEING IT THROUGH

On the national level, the process so favors the election of candidates from either major political party, that it is difficult to believe that third party or independent candidates will soon break that stranglehold on political governance.

Yet, many believe that, if Sen. John McCain had run for president as an independent, and riding on the wave of political campaign financing reform, he may have pulled an historic upset.

The country is hungry for something different from our political leaders. If there was so much political unrest during the last election when the economy was vibrant, imagine the mood of the public if the economy worsens.

For starters, political change could begin at the local level. There is no Republican or Democratic way to pick up garbage, fix the highways, insure the safety of neighborhoods, and deliver all of the necessary services to improve the quality of life in communities.

We'll continue our look at two-party politics next week from the viewpoint of Lake County.

Homework needed

You would expect members of the Lake County Board to do their homework before they make comments in the newspaper. It appears that board member Larry Leafblad did not know the facts when he stated his opposition to any houses on the Central Range Heartland property in Grayslake. If Mr. Leafblad had done the appropriate homework, he would have known that 900 houses are permitted on the Heartland property already. This is even more disconcerting considering Mr. Leafblad is the head of the county Board's Planning Committee.

Fortunately, Grayslake's municipal leaders understand the facts and that is why they are pursuing a big reduction in the number of homes from 900 to 250. Even this limited number of houses, which will be associated with the commuter rail facilities in Grayslake, will not have an adverse financial impact on the affected school districts since the village is pursuing a high-quality, non-residential development for the remainder of the Heartland property that could be developed as homes. The project proposed by the village will generate over $6,000,000 annually in net property tax surplus for the affected school districts.

I know it is a habit for Mr. Leafblad and some members of the County Board to tell villages what to do. Considering the cell towers, billboards, asphalt plants, poorly maintained properties, sign blight, and high density development in single family neighborhoods under the County Board's jurisdiction, perhaps Mr. Leafblad and these County Board members should concentrate on their own areas.

Porn peddlers

Once again, clothing retailer Abercrombie and Fitch is peddling soft porn in the guise of a clothing catalog. In response, I am asking concerned parents and citizens to join me in boycotting this nationwide chain. A&F is glamorizing indiscriminate sexual behavior that unsophisticated teenagers are not possibly equipped to weigh against the dangers of date rape, unplanned pregnancies and sexually transmitted disease. Those disturbed by such irresponsible corporate behavior are encouraged to log onto www.stopAandF.com, sign the on-line boycott petition, and make your voices heard.

A&F's publication not only flaunts page after page of fully and partially nude young people, it also features them in sexually explicit positions, in groups more often than not. When I discovered in 1999, that my teenage daughter had brought this inappropriate material home, I launched the first boycott. A&F responded by shrink wrapping its catalog, and now reportedly only sells it to those who prove they are at least 18-years of age.

It's time that we parents demand that A&F end this distasteful marketing campaign. I want to applaud the dozens of culturally, politically and religiously diverse community leaders who stood up at my urging recently to help launch www.stopAandF.com.

Save farm land

Farm after farm has been gobbled up across the entire country, placing tremendous and unbearable debt on the taxpayers public for schools alone, plus unbelievable traffic congestion.

Yet the Lake County Board feels they need more time to study what is obvious to everyone. Will Rogers said it: "We ain't makin' no more land." What more do we need to know? Libertyville Township has been promoting farmland protection since 1987, through the purchase of development rights, to name just one vehicle to save farmland.

We have studied the issue long enough. Now is the time for action before the farmland is all gone. Every local official from mayor to trustee, along with all state and federal office holders, needs to get on board, along with the religious community. We are in crisis stage emergency as it relates to farmland, and everyone shares in this responsibility.

Lake Forest Hospital to host Baby Alumni Party

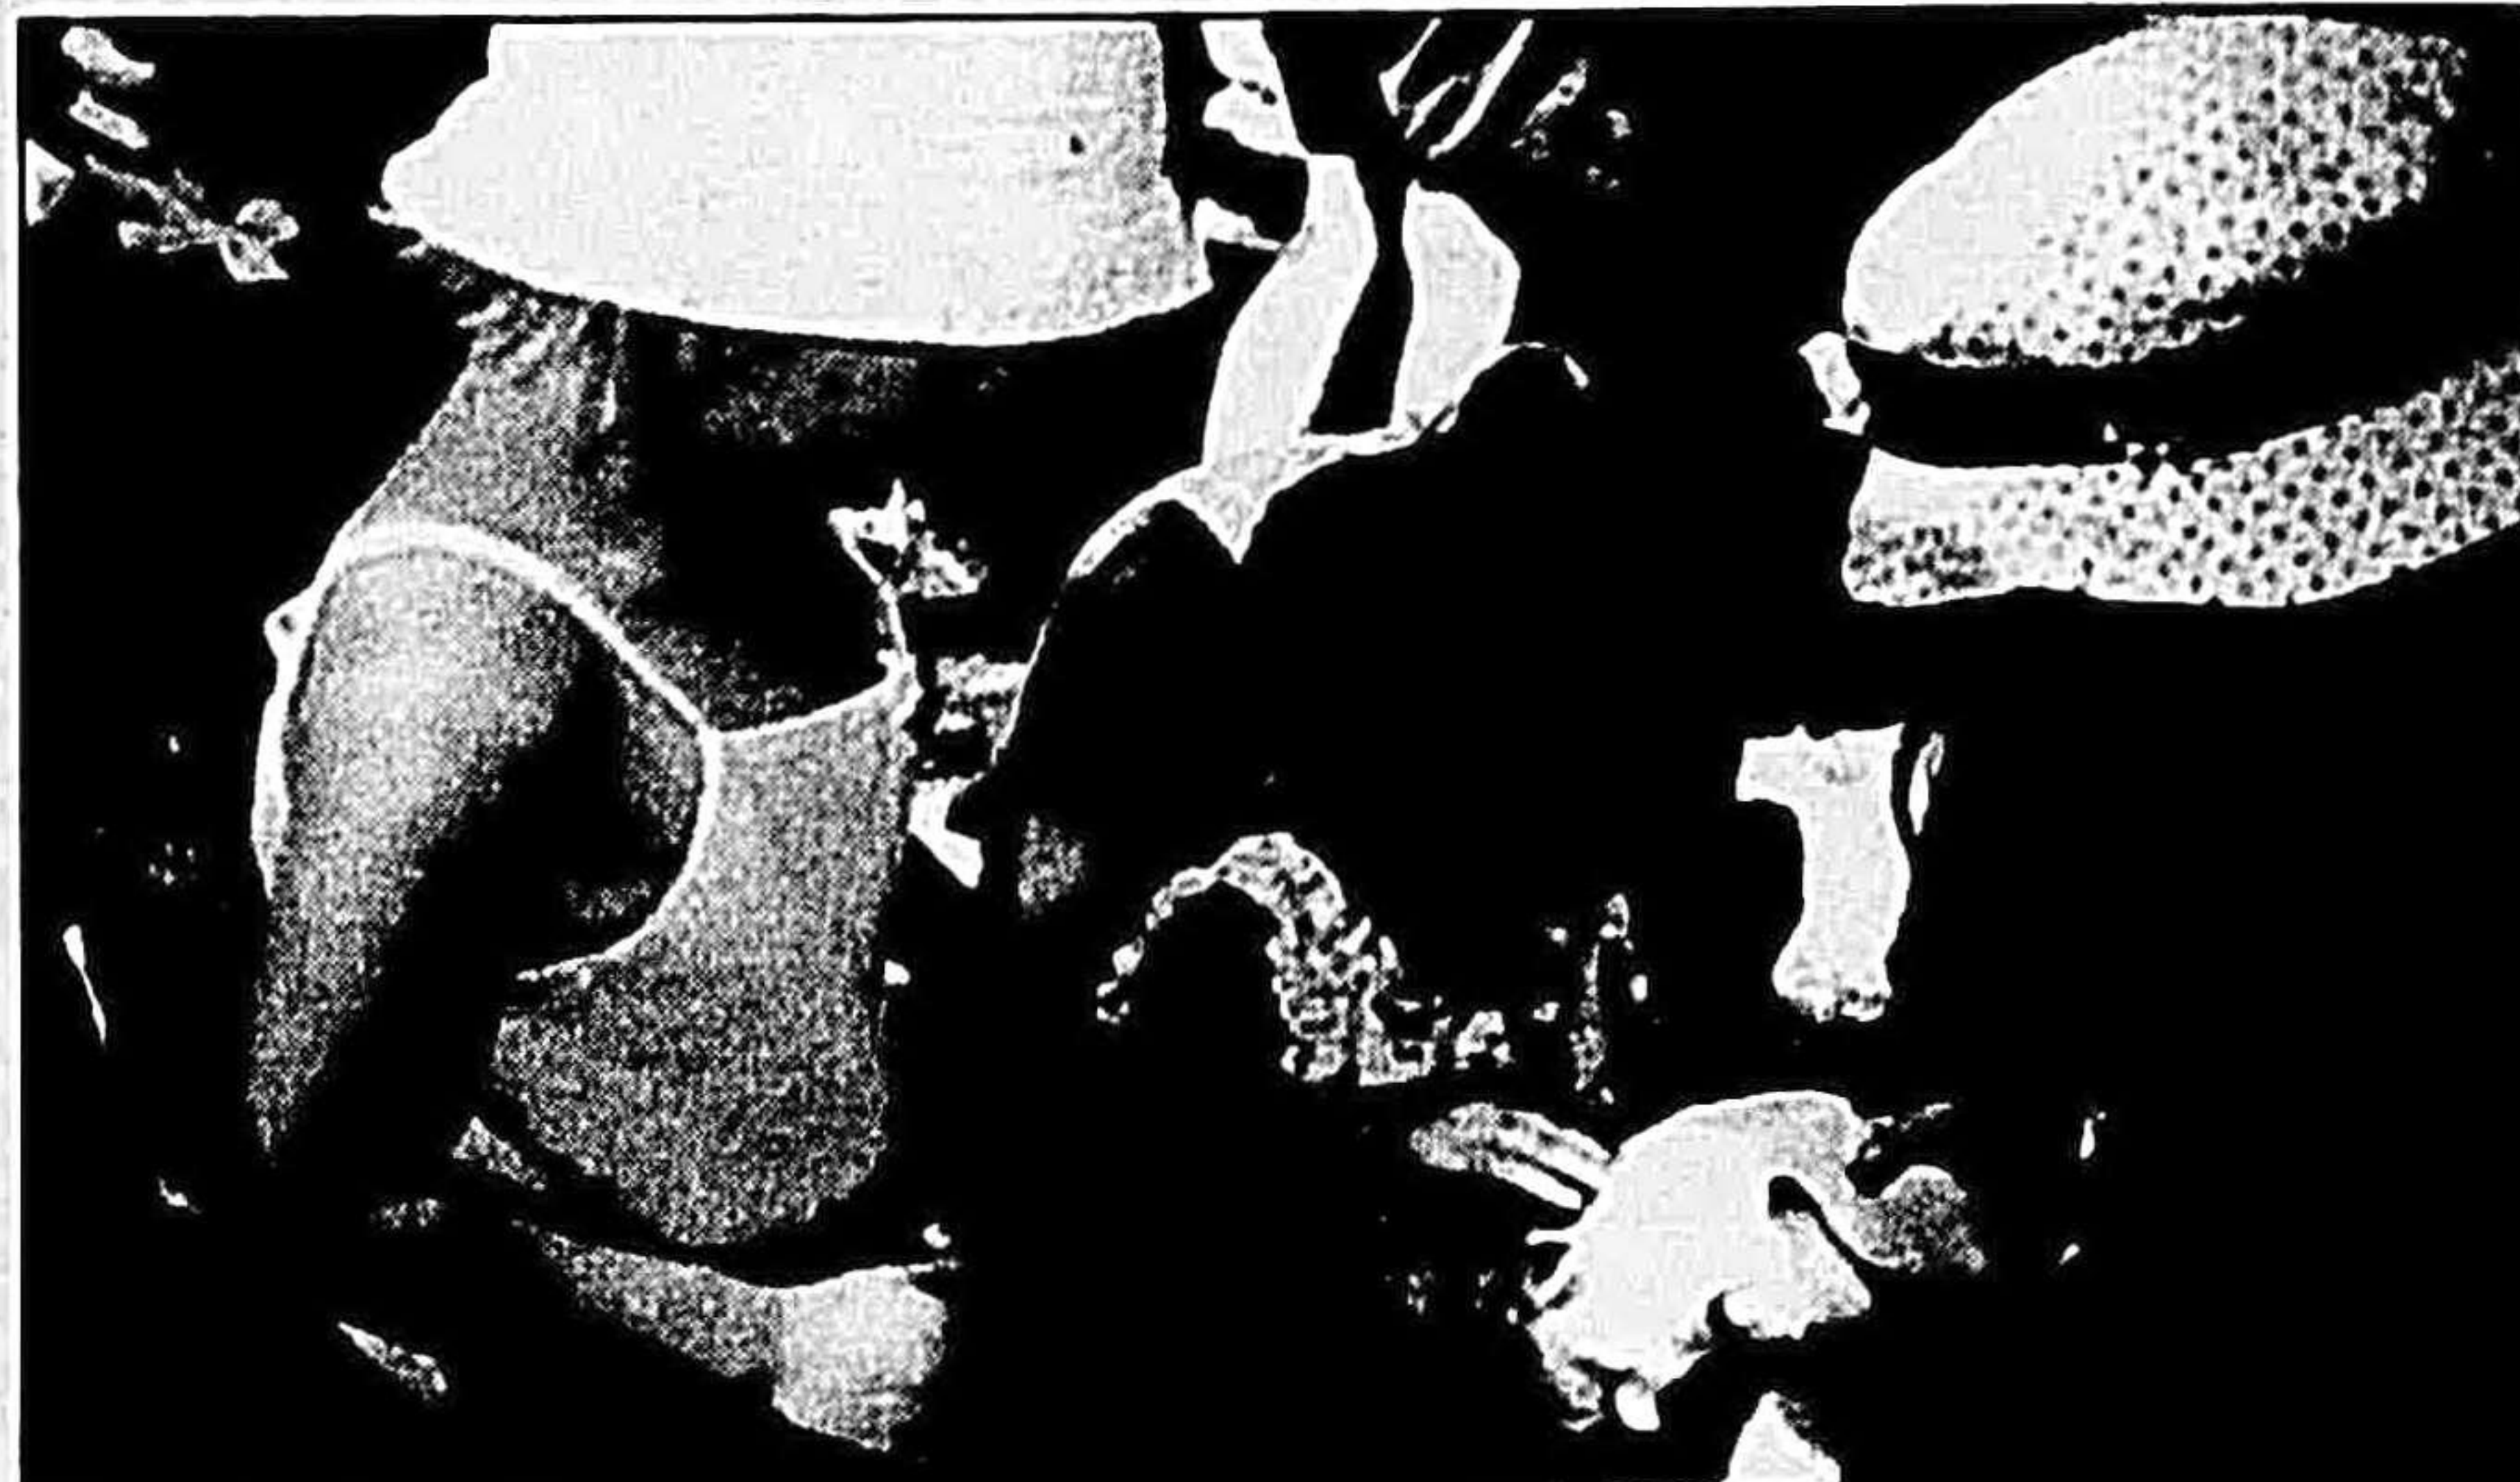

Invitations have been sent and the entertainment is ready. It's time for a special celebration at Lake Forest Hospital. The 54th Baby Alumni party will take place from 10:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. on Wednesday, July 12 on the Lake Forest Hospital front lawn (between the hospital and Westmoreland Nursing Center), 660 N. Westmoreland Road in Lake Forest.

Hosted by the Women's Auxiliary Board of Lake Forest Hospital, Baby Alumni is a goodwill gesture to the patients and the community. All babies born during the previous four-year period are invited. Guests come from all over the northern Chicagoland area and southern Wisconsin, reflecting the broad service area and excellent reputation of the hospital's maternity department.

The event is a popular one. "People call year round to get the date for the upcoming party so they can schedule their vacations around it," said Sue Skinner, director of development. "Many mothers are 'baby alums' themselves who are now bringing their own children," she added.

This year's Baby Alumni will feature visits by Ronald McDonald, Hamburgler, Bird, plus nine children's rides, face painting, and a petting zoo. Event support comes from McDonald's, First Midwest Bank/Lake Forest, and the LFH Women's Auxiliary Board. Volunteers from the Women's Board, Lake Forest Hospital, First Midwest Bank/Lake Forest, and teens from CROYA (Committee Representing Our Young Adults) will be on hand to offer assistance.

Baby Alumni will be held rain or shine. Party chairs are Mona Strenger and Gale Strenger Wayne. For more information contact Sue Skinner, director of Development at (847) 234-6111, or sskinner@lakeforesthospital.com Becca Skinner (center) of Lake Bluff enjoys meeting a rabbit at the petting zoo at Lake Forest Hospital's Baby Alumni party. The celebration tradition, for children ages 4 and younger born at the hospital, began 54 years ago. Becca was born on Baby Alumni day in 1998 at Lake Forest Hospital. This year's Baby Alumni party will be held Wednesday, July 11.

Medical center gets first research grant

To better understand how melatonin can affect a person's ability to fight cancer, Cancer Treatment Research Foundation (CTRF) has awarded $360,000.00 to the Department of Research at Cancer Treatment Centers of America at Midwestern Regional Medical Center in Zion.

Christopher G. Lis, MPH, Director of Research and Robert D. Levin, MD, Chief of Medical Oncology, of CTCA at Midwestern Regional Medical Center, are principal investigators of the grant, evaluating the chronotherapeutic role of melatonin in cancer treatment.

"This study will be the first prospective randomized cancer clinical trial in the United States to investigate: Whether lung cancer patients produce a nocturnal pulse of melatonin prior to therapy; what fraction of patients with advanced lung cancer suffer abnormalities in their circadian activity/rest rhythm; and whether or not melatonin therapy improves the quality of life and overall survival of lung cancer patients" Levin said.

Melatonin is a hormone produced by the pineal gland. At night, melatonin is secreted to regulate a person's sleep-wake cycles. There is research underway to determine melatonin's effect as an anti-oxidant, immuno-modulator, and in sleep disorders and jet lag. But few clinical trials are underway regarding melatonin's role in cancer medicine.

"CTCA is pleased to collaborate with two renowned experts in the field of melatonin therapy and chronobiology-- David E. Blask, MD, PhD, and William JM Hrushesky, MD," Lis added. "Dr. Blask is a Neuroendocrinologist at the Bassett Healthcare Research Institute and Dr. Hrushesky is the Director of Research at WJB Dorn VA Medical Center and Professor at the University of South Carolina School of Medicine and Public Health, respectively. Dr. Blask, principal investigator at the Bassett Research Institute has been a leader in the discovery of melatonin's role in the regulation of cancer development and growth. Dr. Hrushesky, principal investigator of the trial at the WJB Dorn Medical Center, has made major discoveries in applying the science of chronobiology to cancer treatment."

"This trial will allow us to quantify the bioavailability of melatonin in cancer patients. Today, many patients are self-medicating with melatonin without knowing how much they're actually absorbing and the optimal time for administration. In other words, the dose required to achieve a biologic effect may be different in patients undergoing treatment with chemotherapy versus our knowledge of absorption in non cancer patients. Moreover, we will be investigating the optimal time to administer the agent," Lis said.

James F. Grutsch, PhD, a scientific consultant for clinical research at CTCA and Adjunct Faculty of the Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics at the University of Illinois at Chicago School of Public Health is also working with CTCA to spearhead this initiative. According to Grutsch, Co-Principal Investigator of the trial and Adjunct Faculty Member of Department of Epidemiology and Biostatistics at the University of Illinois at Chicago School of Public Health, "The purpose of the melatonin grant is to further develop our knowledge of melatonin's real benefits for cancer patients. Today, there are too many unanswered questions about melatonin's role as an adjuvant, or contributing therapy in cancer patients undergoing chemotherapy. This grant will provide the resources needed to answer urgent questions about melatonin's effectiveness in cancer patients." Grutsch said.

A runaway poodle reminds us all of our capacity for human kindness

Hi Readers,

Usually I answer questions, but today I want to write about heroic behavior. Although this is usually a column for parenting advice, I think the following story has meaning for all of us! Through most news media, we usually get treated to a never ending train of horror stories about how treacherous the human spirit can get. In fact, the other day as I was watching the news, the newswoman appeared to be breathless because she couldn't keep up with all the breaking horror stories. It made me sick. Some of those horror stories lately have been about people's cruelty to animals. We get to see the horror they perpetrate and the attempts to punish them which never seem enough. My story today is thanks and recognition to a group of very unselfish people who risked themselves and took time for the life of a tiny little creature. Through my writing, today, we will read about good people doing heroic things for someone other than themselves! They deserve the credit that most media doesn't give them, but they will get here!

It was a normal, beautiful early evening in Grayslake. I got home early from my office that night and I was thrilled to be able to take a bike ride with my husband before it got dark out. Usually, we have to wait until the weekend, but this night was special. We have a very convoluted, fun ride that we like to take uptown, through wooded trails and neighborhoods. We ended up at the local Tastee Freeze and sat down to eat a wonderful corn dog and of course, my French Fries dipped in Chocolate milkshake. It's a Sherri Singer special you know! As we were finishing our food, we heard screams coming from a house across from the Tastee Freeze. The screams were hysterical and intense and worried. I looked over and saw a tiny little, black dog bolt from the door down the street. The woman in the home came screaming out saying that he was going to get hit on Lake street if someone didn't stop him. Anyone who knows me, knows that I adore animals and cannot stand to have one get hurt so I started running as fast as I could after this dog. My husband didn't know why I was running, at first, because he was paying attention to something the other direction for just a split second longer than I was. He saw me run, got it quickly, grabbed a handful of French Fries and started running after me. The poor woman chasing this dog had no shoes on and had a torn ham-string, yet she kept running to get this dog, all the while yelling for him to be stopped before Lake street.

PARENT'S PLACE

As we were running, she explained to us that this dog was just dropped off in Dominicks parking lot by someone, so he was on his own. That made my heart hurt and I ran faster, but I could not catch this dog. The faster we ran, the faster he ran. We showed him French Fries, we tried to yell softer. Nothing worked. He seemed to be terrified of humans and it made me wonder what humans had done to him. Thank goodness he made it across Lake street, and we chased him as fast as we could but after running almost halfway home after this dog, I physically couldn't keep up. I was wearing sandals. Out of breath, we stopped and watched the dog run down the street and saw car after car of people stop and get out of their car to try and get this dog and help. I immediately thought about the news and how readily they report the horror, but all of these people who stopped to try and help even though there was nothing in it for them, just overwhelmed me and rekindled my faith in the human spirit.

The dog finally ran between two houses and, at least now he was in neighborhoods and less likely to be hit. We couldn't run any more for fear of passing out. We are not skinny people and not in shape by any stretch of the imagination. We promised the woman we would go back to her house and get her husband so he could get his car and look. The strange thing was that when we turned to walk back, I could not believe how far we were. I asked my husband how it was that we could have gotten so far and not realized it. He simply said, "we ran!" All the way back, I was amazed at how many people on balconies were worried about this dog. I hadn't seen them while we were running past, but now, as we were walking back, they were all asking about the dog and whether he was o.k. It was a very heart-warming experience.

We got back and got her husband and he took off after her and this dog. We sat down to finish our food and felt forlorn about not having been able to stop the dog. We felt bad because we would never be able to have closure to know it was o.k. Now comes the weird part! We left to ride home and started coming up to Harvey street where all of this chase had taken place and low and behold as we are coming up to Lake street going West, the little black dog was coming toward us toward Lake Street going east. I told my husband to go on the sidewalk and I would go in the street and we blocked him from getting to Lake Street. We talked softly and gently to him to get him to stay and did not make a move forward. He stopped. All of a sudden, a car comes pulling up behind the dog and a guy we haven't seen yet gets out and starts talking to the dog softly too. Then the original woman came up with her husband's car. So, we were all surrounding him. As could be predicated, he took off between our legs but this time, thank goodness, he ran into a fenced yard. All 5 of us spread out and slowly came toward him and finally, the husband charmed the little pooch into his hands and it was done!

Now, with great relief, I raced around the house and my husband yelled after me, "why are you running now?" I told him that I needed to see this little stinker, up close to at least see the face of the little life we had all helped and the little life who had given us the work out of our lives. He was a tiny, little, black cutie pie who was now safe and sound and o.k. We felt like there had been divine intervention to have us be at that corner right at that moment to stop him from going into traffic. I feel chills now as I write about it. We were thrilled beyond belief to see a happy ending. We were even more thrilled to see the selflessness of so many people for one tiny life! The people who took this dog in, in the first place, are spectacular. The woman gets an award for running while injured and without shoes. I know that I would step in front of a moving train for any of my babies, so I understand it completely, but when you see the news enough, it makes you believe that most people wouldn't do anything to help anyone but themselves! I am happy to report, they are way beyond wrong! All those that stopped along the way deserve tremendous recognition. They didn't even know what was happening. They just saw someone in trouble and acted to help. All those on their balconies that asked along the way are very special too. It wouldn't have changed their lives any to not know, but they were concerned too.

I hope the people who were involved with this, read this column and hear my thanks for showing me and also my husband, first hand, human kindness at it's absolute best! Teach your kids about this kindness and being concerned for others. It's contagious!

Trustees discuss Central Range office development

By HELEN MANSFIELD
Staff Reporter

During the Committee of the Whole portion of the Grayslake Village Board of Trustees meeting, Economic Development Commission Chairman Phil Harris gave the group an overview of the proposed Central Range office and housing development.

Part of the old Heartland Settlement, the land along Grayslake's southern border will consist of 900 acres which will be used for a combination of single-family housing, professional offices, light industrial and some retail development.

The area is bordered by the Metra commuter railroad on the north, Rt. 83 on the east, Peterson Rd. on the south and Alleghany Rd. on the west.

Harris described the development as "environmentally sensitive" and could provide millions annually in tax revenue for both Grayslake School Districts 46 and 127, as well as for Fremont District 79.

The project could generate more than $6.5 million annually in net positive property tax revenues.

The development, which could be described as a combination of Grayslake's Prairie Crossing development and the Corporate Woods in Vernon Hills, would have strict guidelines to allow for existing wetlands, trails and native plants.

Harris said all plans are tentative at this point, as the development needs intergovernmental approval between Grayslake and the Lake County Board.

All development plans would allow for future road improvements on Rt. 120, Peterson, Alleghany and the often controversial Hwy. 53 expansion.

Harris said, in his opinion, the expansion of Hwy. 53 would help the development sell more quickly, but the development as a whole will work with or without Hwy. 53.

Once built out, the Central Range could provide up to 6650 corporate jobs and 200 retail.

"Implementation will require cooperation between the county and the village," Harris said. "We need to let the county know we are in favor of this, the school districts are most definitely."

Harris said an intergovernmental agreement with the County is required as Grayslake would need to pass ordinances and extend the village's sewer and water system to provide the development with those utilities.

Mayor Tim Perry said the Central Range development will have significant ramifications for the region.

"Most industrial parks in Lake County are on major thoroughfares and are at build-out conditions," he said. "This development would allow us to attract or retain the existing tax base."

Perry said he has talked to the mayors of Round Lake Beach, Libertyville and Mundelein and feels Central Range fits in with their economic development ideas.

"No one wants to see more houses, but rather an expanded commercial base," Perry said. "This will provide momentum to the entire region."

County Board Member Larry Leafblad of Grayslake is supportive of the Central Range plan for its commercial development plans, but not for the housing angle.

"The County Board is in favor of working with the village toward a common goal, but we want development with less residential housing," Leafblad said he personally is in favor of the development and likens its potential to that of the office park in Lincolnshire.

"We could all make something like that happen if we wanted," he said.

The Central Range plan will come before the Grayslake Village Board of Trustees at their July 17 meeting.

Fairfield Villages offers attainable ownership

Affordable prices, low interest rates and $4,000 to be applied to options and closing costs can make home ownership an attainable dream at Fairfield Villages on Long Lake in Round Lake Beach.

For a limited time, a selection of Manor Home condominium designs is being offered for 30 to 60-day delivery with the attractive incentive. Current base prices for the Manor Homes range from $101,990 to $103,990.

Fairfield Villages on Long Lake is 345 townhomes and Manor Homes in a resort-like setting. In addition to the 220 one-level Manor Homes, the community also includes 125 townhomes, currently priced from $112,990 to $119,990.

"Sales this year have been as brisk as the weather, with 24 homes sold in two months," said Isa Noe, vice president of sales and marketing for Kenar, L.L.C. "Low interest rates and super-affordable prices are making it possible for many people to purchase their first homes and for empty-nester buyers to take advantage of a new lifestyle with freedom from exterior maintenance chores. And, with the $4,000 incentive on select homes, buyers will find truly outstanding values at Fairfield Villages."

Fairfield Villages on Long Lake has a peaceful, rural environment. The community is built on rolling land and in addition to views of the lake, residents can view 71 acres of park district open space and wetlands. Wooded areas and five ponds will provide a naturally beautiful setting.

Two second-floor Manor Home designs are represented among the homes for early delivery with the $4,000 incentive. The Manor Homes each have two bedrooms, two baths, cathedral ceilings, central air conditioning, white colonist doors and trim and attached garage.

"The $4,000 incentive can be used to add options such as washers and dryers, upgraded kitchen cabinets and carpeting and many other deluxe features," Noe said. "Or, buyers can apply $3,000 toward options and $1,000 toward closing costs."

The Arlington is a 1,067-square-foot home priced from $101,990, while the Buckingham offers 1,002 square feet of space, priced from $103,990.

The homes include living rooms with triple windows overlooking patios; dining rooms with large windows and access to patios; kitchens with refrigerators, continuous-clean gas ovens/ranges and hoods, dishwashers and garbage disposals; master suites with walk-in closets and private baths with double-bowl vanities per plan; second bedrooms served by hall baths; convenient laundry rooms near bedrooms; and attached garages.

removal, intercom service in the Manor Homes and coverage under a master insurance policy for a modest monthly fee.

Fairfield Villages also offers buyers three two-story townhome plans, ranging in size from 1,038 to 1,246 square feet with two bedrooms or two bedrooms and a den; 1 1/2 baths; living rooms with optional fireplaces; dining rooms; eat-in kitchens; second-floor laundry rooms; colonist doors and trim; wall-to-wall carpeting; and attached garages.

The natural beauty of the Lake County area is an inviting reminder of its history as a major Chicagoland resort area. Today, with Metra commuter train service just two minutes from Fairfield Villages and major highways linking residents with jobs all over the metropolitan area, it is possible to live a resort lifestyle all year round. Shopping, restaurants and entertainment abound in this popular suburban area and the Chain O'Lakes draws water sports enthusiasts with its 17 lakes and more than 500 miles of shoreline.

The Fairfield Village sales center and model homes are open 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily, except for Monday when hours are noon to 6 p.m. To visit, take IL Hwy. 12 to IL Hwy. 120, east two miles to Fairfield, north three miles to Long Lake Drive (Main Street), west three blocks to Village Drive and follow the signs. Call 740-0200 for more information, or visit www.kenarllc.com.

ANSWERS

HOROSCOPE

Aries - March 21/April 20

You get the cold shoulder from business associates early in the week, Aries. It will be frustrating, but you have to get to the root of the problem. A loved one needs your help later in the week. Do all that you can for him or her — even though it will take up a lot of your time. Leo plays a key role.

Taurus - April 21/May 21

Get ready, Taurus, because it's going to be a long week. You have a lot of things to do in both your professional life and your personal life. Don't let others distract you. You meet an old friend at the end of the week. Catch up with him or her; you'll be surprised to learn how much you two have in common.

Gemini - May 22/June 21

A disagreement between loved ones turns into a family feud this week, Gemini. Even though it's going to be difficult, don't choose sides. Try to help everyone else come to an understanding. That special someone finally asks you out. However, don't say yes immediately. Playing "hard to get" is sure to keep him or her interested.

Cancer - June 22/July 22

You do very well when it comes to business this week, Cancer. You make wise decisions that get you noticed by the higher-ups. A bonus is on the way. A friend turns to you for advice. Give your honest opinion — that's what he or she needs to hear. Sagittarius and Libra play key roles later in the week.

Leo - July 23/August 23

This is not the week for you to be headstrong. Keep your cool, or you are going to get into trouble with business associates, loved ones and friends. If you get frustrated, spend some time alone to clear your thoughts. A close friend admits how he or she truly feels about you. Don't give a hasty response. Think about how you feel.

Virgo - Aug 24/Sept 22

You have good fortune this week, Virgo. You complete everything that you set out to do, and you feel great. Don't let a minor argument with a friend ruin your attitude. The two of you will work it out very soon. A loved one needs your help with a personal problem. Be supportive.

Libra - Sept 23/Oct 23

Everything seems to upset you early in the week. However, don't take your frustration out on those around you. Try to calm down before you say something that you'll regret. That special someone whom you've been seeing wants to intensify the relationship. Say yes! This is the person for you. Leo plays a key role.

Scorpio - Oct 24/Nov 22

Keep your shoulder to the wheel early in the week, Scorpio. You have a long to-do list that needs to be completed before Friday. A lot of people are depending on you. Don't let them down. A friend gets into a lot of trouble and turns to you for help. Do what you can, because he or she doesn't know where else to go.

Sagittarius - Nov 23/Dec 21

Even though you don't have a lot of work to do, it's a busy week for you. Everyone seems to need your help in one way or another. Do what you can, but don't wear yourself thin. You need to look out for No. 1. A friend of a friend wants to meet with you. Don't get nervous; this could be the beginning of a fulfilling relationship.

Capricorn - Dec 22/Jan 20

A business associate needs help with an important project. Even though you have your own work to do, you realize how crucial this assignment is. Do all that you can to help. Your efforts will be noticed. A close friend takes you out late in the week. Enjoy yourself.

Aquarius - Jan 21/Feb 18

You can't be in two places at once, Aquarius. So, organize your time efficiently. Prioritize your schedule, and do what you have to do. A loved one understands when you cancel plans with him or her. You meet an interesting person during the middle of the week. Find a way to see him or her again.

Pisces - Feb 19/March 20

Your week gets a rough start. A problem at work has you fixing a lot of other people's mistakes. Don't get frustrated; just correct the problems. Your superiors have their eyes on you. An old flame contacts you out of the blue. Don't rekindle the fire!

Chicago Bulls basketball schools tip-off 3rd season

Elton Brand, the NBA's 2000 Rookie of the Year, will host his first-ever basketball camp this summer. The Chicago Bulls star power forward has teamed up with the Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools to conduct a special week-long camp (July 30-Aug. 3) at the new Chicago Bulls Training Academy in Lisle. Elton Brand will be on hand to provide personalized instruction, and to talk to campers about the hard work and dedication required to become a NBA All-Star. The Elton Brand camp is open to boys and girls, ages 9-17, and costs $350. Enrollment is limited.

The Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools enter their third season after a successful tip-off in the summer of 1999. In addition to the week-long, one-half day camps scheduled at more than 100 locations in the Chicago area, overnight camps are being offered this summer.

The Overnight Camps are July 15-18 and

July 19-22 for boys and are open to children entering grades 5-12. The four-day, three night camps (Sunday-Wednesday and Thursday-Sunday) cost $250 for overnight campers and $210 for commuters. The Overnight Camps are being held at Saint Joseph's College in Rensselaer, Ind., which is located off I-65, 60 miles south of Chicago and 100 miles north of Indianapolis.

The camps operate in week-long sessions Monday-Friday until mid-August. The cost is $189 per session.

Camps are open to boys and girls ages 6-14 and are divided into two sessions. There will be a rookie (ages 6-8) and veteran group (ages 9-14).

Hurry and register, as space is limited to 60 campers per group.

To reserve space or request more information on the Chicago Bulls Basketball Schools, call (630)-GOBULLS (462-8557) or visit the web site at www.BullsSoxAcademy.com.

NSC Student-Athlete Leadership Workshop

The North Suburban Conference has announced its second annual Student-Athlete Leadership workshop. The conference will be held on Sunday, Aug. 19 from 2-6:15 p.m. and on Monday, Aug. 20 from 7:30 a.m.-2:30 p.m. at Stevenson High School.

The North Suburban Conference consists of 12 outstanding schools including Antioch, Grant, Lake Forest, Libertyville, Mundelein, North Chicago, Round Lake, Stevenson, Vernon Hills, Warren, Wauconda and Zion Benton.

The workshop will feature the nationally known educator and motivational speaker, Michael Brandwein. Brandwein will lead the conference along with approximately 700 student-athletes, coaches and athletic administrators. The workshop features a blend of large group follow-up sessions led by coaches and student facilitators. The North Suburban Conference Administrators have initiated the workshop in an effort to help student athletes understand the concepts of leadership. If we expect these student-athletes to lead, we must offer them learning experiences demonstrating the characteristics of leadership. Some of the key components that will be emphasized this year include: sportsmanship; courage to take risks; willingness to go beyond the call of duty; teamwork; and, the decision making; willingness to accept responsibility and consequences of your behavior.

Athletic leadership is alive and well in the North Suburban Conference. We are looking forward to hosting this conference. For more information about this workshop, feel free to contact any league athletic director or the workshop host chairperson, John Martin, athletic director at Stevenson High School, 634-4000 ext. 210.

Moulis takes checkered flag for fourth straight win

Dave Moulis of Johnsburg scored his fourth straight feature win in 2001 at Premier Racing Production's Wilmot Speedway. The reigning 'King' of Wisconsin Sprint Car racing scored the feature victory in the 25-lap Star Trac 410 Outlaw Sprints feature highlighting the Speedway's 50th Anniversary Night Celebration presented by Don's Towing & Recovery Service. The date, June 23, actually marked the official date of the first-ever race held at the old Kenosha County Super Speedway, located just to the southeast of the existing facility near the Wilmot High School.

Ed Devall of Waukegan made it three straight in the IMCA modifieds by taking the checkered flag in the time limit shortened feature. Lyle Bottlemey of Genoa City, Wis. scored his first 10-lap Herb's IMCA hobby stock main event win of the season.

"This one sure wasn't easy," said Moulis. "I knew Raymond (Hensley) was coming because I could hear his motor. I saw the lapped cars and had to decide which way to go, hoping he wouldn't be finding a quicker spot to get around. It worked. It's a big night for the track, being the 50th anniversary, and it means a lot to me and my team to win four in a row. We'll be back (July 7) when the IRA (Interstates Racing Assn.) comes and see what we can do then."

After leading the first two circuits, Brent Mason spun in turn one bringing out a caution. Dave Bliss maintained the point on the restart, holding it through a lap 7 yellow. Just prior to another caution on lap 8, John Tierney became the third different leader. A final yellow on lap 10 kept Tierney at the point with Moulis working his way into the top three. With 10 laps to go, Moulis shot to the inside of Tierney as the pair battled wing to wing around the one-third mile oval. Moulis took command on lap 16 with Hensley working his way through the field from a 13th starting spot.

On the white flag lap, Moulis and Hensley caught lapped traffic with the two dicing inside, outside and even three-wide while trying to displace the backmarkers. Coming in for the checkered, Moulis shot high in turn four with Hensley slicing to the inside as the pair crossed less than half a car length apart at the checkered. Hensley, of Trevor, Wis., was second, Bliss of Harvard third, Burlington's Tierney, of Burlington, Wis. fourth and Rick Kelsey of West Allis, Wis. fifth.

"It's not exactly the way I like to win them, but we'll take it anyway," said Devall, noting his win as the yellow/checkered flag flew on the caution-filled IMCA modified main. "I know it was the 50th anniversary, but I thought the feature was supposed to be 20 laps, not 50."

Carl Geier took the initial lead, but spun, giving way to Dave Holden on lap two. Devall worked the outside into the lead on lap three, maintaining the point through a series of cautions, which prevented many laps from getting in. A final yellow came when second place running Mike Simons II spun in turn one on lap 13, bringing with it the checkered flag due to the time limit of the event. Kurt Spaulding of Eau Claire, Michigan, in his first appearance at Wilmot, finished second. Lee Tibbitts of Hebron, Ill., who pitted during one of the early yellows and restarted at the back of the field, came on to take third followed by Jay Crichton of Lake Villa fourth and Nick Simons of Genoa City, Wis. fifth.

"I'm back," said Bottlemey following his hobby stock feature win. "I don't really care why Tony (Schlei) had to pit, because this feels great. I have to thank everyone who has stuck with me."

Bottlemey led flag to flag in the hobby main with little challenge. Schlei, of Zion, who was bidding for his third straight feature win, had to pit when his throttle stuck during the parade lap. Schlei returned, but placed sixth, four laps down, out of the nine cars which ran the main. Dave Grenlund of Sharon, Wis., the 2000 Wilmot champion, finished second. Billy Combs of Kenosha, Wis. was third, Kyle Techert of Kenosha fourth and Joseph Mathews of Pleasant Prairie, Wis. fifth.

Three vintage race cars from the past were displayed and ran some exhibition laps as part of the anniversary celebration. Glenn Deswysen, the 1979 Wilmot Speedway modified champion, ran a vintage sprint car built in the early 1970s. Lance Turner brought out a midget built in 1980. Kim Marks had a midget which was raced from 1979-1994.

Wilmot's 50th anniversary celebration season continues on Saturday, June 30 featuring IMCA modifieds, IMCA hobby stocks, Wisconsin Mini-Sprint Assn. (WIMSA) mini-sprints and dwarf cars. Gates open at 5 p.m. with racing at 7. Sprint cars return to Wilmot on Saturday, July 7 with the first appearance of the season by the regional Interstates Racing Assn. Outlaw Sprint Cars. IMCA hobby stocks are also on the program. For the latest information phone the 24-hour racelines (262) 862-2446 or (847) 838-RACE.

YOUTH SPORTS DIGEST

Results Soccer

The U-10 Grayslake Galaxy boys team came away with their biggest win of the year, a 2-1 victory over the previously unbeaten Spring Lake Lightning. A. Lopez made a nice run down the left side and crossed the ball to an open T. Wolfe, who calmly scored his first goal of the year. That was followed up later in the first-half by a quick counter attack begun by B. Dingman and completed by A. Jones for his 11th goal. The Lightning proved why they were undefeated with a strong attack in the second half, culminating in a goal from a free kick. The Galaxy (5-3-1) refused to yield another goal, however, and created scoring chances of their own before the time ran out on an excellent and entertaining game. T. Zlonkowski, N. Lopez and J. LeBeau anchored the defense, combined with the great midfield play from J. Bowes and A. Groeninger, which resulted in our controlling the game.

The Warren United Blazers U-10 Blue team dominated Arlington 8-3 to finish a great season with only one loss. The Blazer scoring started one minute into the game on a strong throw-in by Desiree Aber that was headed by an Arlington player into the Blazer goal. Annie Strychalski and Anna Trout had double assists on the next two goals, the first by Kelsay Armour and the second by Maddie Wilson. Strychalski then added two tallies of her own to finish the season with an impressive 20 goals. Lucy White assisted on Strychalski's first goal and Korina Hoppe aided in the second.

White finished out the scoring in the first-half on an assist from Wilson. The Blazers sealed the victory early in the second half with Katie Burke moving from first-half keeper responsibilities to score on Wilson's second assist. Hoppe finished the scoring on a penalty kick that was buried in the right corner of the net. Rebecca Chavers contributed on offense with good ball movement and Maddie Ogrinc once again led the very strong Blazer defense that averaged one goal a game for the season and had six shut-outs. The Blazers finished the season with an 11-1-2 record and are coached by Rich Armour, Mark Hoppe and Charlie Trout.

Carmel's Mikrut a force in all aspects of the game

By ROB BACKUS
Staff Reporter

Already an established pitcher, having gone 7-2 with a 2.00 ERA in 2000, Carmel's Jon Mikrut worked hard in the off-season to improve on his already impressive hitting numbers (.342 with six home runs and 35 RBIs in 2000).

"Over the winter I worked on hitting more than anything," said Mikrut. "I also worked on my pitching mechanics and basic fundamentals."

The work paid off as Mikrut hit .396 with nine home runs and 43 runs scored.

Mikrut also played sound defense defense as a reliable if not spectacular shortstop.

In fact, Mikrut was such a stabilizing factor in the infield, when he pitched Carmel's defense suffered.

"He solidified the infield," said head coach Chuck Gandolfi. "When he pitched there were a lot of errors."

On the mound Mikrut had a 0.79 ERA with 54 strike outs and just eight walks in 55 1/3 innings pitched. However, he went just 5-5 as 21 unearned runs crossed the plate while he was on the mound.

"I just had some bad luck (on the mound)," said Mikrut. "A lot of my losses came from unearned runs."

Despite the occasional bad luck, Mikrut enjoyed his senior season, his third and final one at the varsity level.

"I loved playing this season, it was great," said Mikrut. "We had a great group of seniors and we were all good friends on and off the field."

The rapport between the senior group was something that Gandolfi noticed as well.

"All of the seniors got along great," said Gandolfi.

The solid senior season at the plate, on the mound and in the field earned Mikrut an athletic scholarship at Northwestern.

Jon Mikrut
Sr., SS/P, Carmel

His major is undecided but he is leaning toward becoming a teacher.

But for now, Mikrut is going to concentrate on baseball.

"I love baseball and I'm hoping to get drafted," said Mikrut. "Playing baseball for money would be great."

Coach of the Year

Grant head coach Lee Raddatz (right) chats with his players during the regional semifinals against Zion-Benton. After seven seasons at the helm and 30 overall at Grant, his Bulldogs claimed the school's first-ever regional crown. Grant also finished second in the North Suburban Prairie Division (7-3) while also reaching the 20-win plateau (23-12) for the first time.

First Team

Joe Finkelburg, Antioch

Batting in the DH spot, the junior outfielder hit for a .350 average while smacking four home runs to accompany 28 RBIs.

Chris Malec, Antioch

The junior lefty followed up last year's sparkling campaign by going 13-3 with an ERA a shade under 2.00. Fanned 130 batters in just 92 innings.

Pat McMahon, Carmel

A four-year starter, McMahon showed his usual steady prowess behind the plate. On offense, hit .450 with four homers and 39 RBIs.

Ted Damos, Grant

The senior left-fielder was instrumental in Grant's sectional run, batting close to .350 with five homers, four triples and 23 RBIs. Also scored 42 runs.

Chad Stroup, Grant

The powerful third baseman smacked four homers, drove in 37, and batted .380 in the cleanup position. When not at third, posted five victories on the hill.

Larry Gempp Jr., Grant

One of the purest swings in the area, this junior outfielder laced nine homers, giving him 22 for his career, tops on the school's all-time list. Batted .390 on 39 hits while hitting in the No. 2 slot.

Aaron Bardy, Grayslake

An All-Fox Valley selection, this senior was the main cog in the Rams defense at the catcher position. The two-year starter was the team captain and hit .253 with three homers and eight RBIs.

Dan Harrington, Libertyville

One of the top pitchers in the area, Harrington posted an 11-2 mark with 97 strikeouts and a sparkling ERA of 1.42. The University of Illinois-Chicago-bound Harrington smacked three homers and drove in 37 while batting around the .350 mark.

John Dwan, Libertyville

Watch out for this junior next season. On the mound, compiled a 9-1 record with a 1.34 ERA. At the plate, hit just over .400 with two round-trippers and 29 RBIs.

Steve Plucinski, Mundelein

The senior pitcher was a big part of Mundelein's state run this season. On the hill, Plucinski tied a record for wins in a season (14) while fanning 151 batters in only 105 innings. His dramatic homer helped MHS to a sectional semifinal victory.

Chris Hynes, Mundelein

Instrumental in the Mustangs offense, the junior catcher belted six homers while batting .360 with a team-leading 33 RBIs.

Justin Lueck, Round Lake

The junior lead-off hitter batted a robust .420 with two homers and 19 RBIs. Dangerous on the base paths, swiped 31 out of 34. On defense, tallied seven assists in the outfield.

Jason Newburger, Vernon Hills

The junior pitcher/third baseman was all over the place for the first-year Cougar program. Drove in 21 runs and swiped nine bases while batting around the .450 mark.

Russ Schalby, Warren

The senior pitcher/outfielder missed the first part of the season with a hand injury but still managed to hit at a .390 clip with eight doubles, four home runs and 18 RBIs.

Pat Gallivan, Wauconda

The senior catcher and team captain batted around the .300 mark with 15 RBIs off of a team-leading 23 hits.

PUBLIC NOTICE*ORDINANCE NO. 01-0-02*AN ORDINANCE ASSESSING FEES FOR PROVIDING SPECIALIZED RESCUE TEAMS IN EMERGENCY SITUATIONS

WHEREAS, the Newport Township Fire Protection District (the "District") is a fire protection district duly organized under the laws of the State of Illinois; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees (the "Board") of the District has full power to pass all necessary ordinances, and rules and regulations for the proper management and conduct of the business of the Board of Trustees for carrying into effect the objects for which the District was formed (70ILCS705/6); and

WHEREAS, the District has undertaken the responsibility of providing specialized rescue service to its residents and, by mutual aid, to the residents of other communities; and

WHEREAS, the cost of training and equipping the specialized rescue teams is great, however, the benefits often accrue to a small number of people or entities; and WHEREAS, a specialized rescue team is defined as those rescue team responses including, but not limited to: Tactical Rescue, High Angle Rescue, Underwater Rescue/Recovery, Confined Space Rescue, Below Grade Rescue, and/or Trench Rescue ("Specialized Rescue Teams").

WHEREAS, the Board finds that it is in the best interest of the District and the residents of the District to require that those who benefit from Specialized Rescue Teams pay fees to help the District offset the cost of training and maintaining the Teams; and WHEREAS, This Ordinance is designed to compensate the District for costs accruing to the District that result from services provided to any person or the owner or persons responsible for an object or person that was involved in or caused an accident that necessitated the use of the District's Specialized Rescue Teams.

NOW THEREFORE Be It Ordained by the Board of Trustees of the Newport Township Fire Protection District, Lake County, Illinois, as follows:

Section One: Notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, the following persons shall be jointly, or jointly and severally liable for all costs of a Specialized Rescue Team as set forth in this ordinance:

- A. the owner of the property on which the specialized emergency response occurs;
- b. any person involved in any activity which caused or contributed to the causation of the emergency;
- c. in cases involving the rescue or recovery of an individual, the individual and his/her employer if the person was in the District in furtherance of the employer's interests; and
- d. in cases involving the rescue or recovery of property, the owner of the property and any one who had custody or control of the property at the time of the emergency.

Section Two: The charges for an emergency response of a Specialized Rescue Team are as follows for the purpose of Tactical Rescue, High Angle Rescue, Confined Space Rescue, Below Grade Rescue, Trench Rescue and/or Underwater Rescue/Recovery:

- A. Basic charge for team response: $2,000.00.
- B. Additional charges:
  1. $125.00 per hour (or fraction thereof) per vehicle responding;
  2. $35.00 per hour (or fraction thereof) per team member responding; and
  3. actual cost of all consumable materials or equipment necessary in proving the response.

Section Three: In addition to charges for a Specialized Rescue Team response, if a person or entity within the District requests that, pursuant to occupational safety and health laws, the District or any intergovernmental agency to which the District belongs be listed as the rescue service or as the backup rescue service on the permit of a permit-required confined space activity, the charge for such service shall be $1,000.00 per day. If a person or entity lists the District as the rescue service or the backup rescue service without notifying the District, in writing, in advance of entry into any permit-required confined space, the person or entity shall be charged $1,500.00 per day for each day the permit is outstanding.

Section Four: Nothing in this Ordinance shall preclude the assessment of fees or other charges pursuant to any other District ordinance or resolution including, but not limited to Ordinance 97-0____, adopted on April 9, 1997, as amended and Ordinance 99-0____, adopted on October 13, 1999, as amended.

Section Five: The provisions and sections of this Ordinance shall be deemed severable and the invalidity of any portion of this Ordinance shall not affect the validity of the remainder of the Ordinance.

Section Six: Any person or entity that refuses to pay or fails to pay the above-listed charges within sixty (60) days of notice of the charges will be deemed to have violated this Ordinance and will incur a fine of not less than $100,000 or more than $500.00 for each offense, plus all legal fees and all costs caused by enforcement. Such fees and costs shall include, but not be limited to, attorneys' fees and the cost of collection. A separate offense shall be deemed committed for each day on which a violation occurs and continues.

Section Seven: The Fire Chief is hereby authorized to waive any or all of the fees due under this Ordinance. He may do so by policy or on an individual basis.

Section Eight: This Ordinance shall be published within one month after it is passed in a newspaper of general circulation in the District in accordance with 70 ILCS 705/7. This Ordinance takes effect ten days after it is published.

ADOPTED this 13th day of June, 2001.

PUBLIC NOTICE
ORDINANCE NO. 01-0-01

AN ORDINANCE REVISING THE HAZARDOUS MATERIALS DISCHARGE PAY SCHEDULE

WHEREAS, the cost of providing emergency services to mitigate the effects of the discharge of hazardous materials within the Newport Township Fire Protection District (the "District") has increased rapidly in years; and

WHEREAS, the District must acquire and maintain specialized equipment and provide specialized training to District personnel to mitigate the effects of the discharge of hazardous materials on the health, safety and welfare of District residents and property and on the ecological balance of the environment; and

WHEREAS, in order to obtain sufficient funds to provide emergency services to mitigate the effects of the discharge of hazardous materials, it is necessary to require those individuals or entities requiring such specialized emergency services to reimburse the District for such services; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees (the "Board") of the District have found and determined that it is in the best interest of the District, its residents, businesses and property owners to provide specific regulations regarding the discharge of hazardous materials and to require reimbursement for emergency services involving hazardous materials.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Board of Trustees of the Newport Township Fire Protection District, Lake County, Illinois, as follows:

Section One: This Ordinance supersedes any and all previous ordinances, resolutions or motions of the District which may conflict with the provisions herein contained.

Section Two: DEFINITIONS: As used in this Ordinance, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

COSTS: All expenses incurred by the District or any other public agency assisting the District as a result of any removal or remedial action. These expenses include, but are not limited to, the actual labor costs of personnel involved, the cost of equipment, consumable materials, and actual damage or loss to any equipment and material, and the cost of any contract labor or materials necessary as a function of the removal or remedial action.

DISCHARGE: Any spilling, leaking, pumping, pouring, emitting, escaping, emptying, discharging, injecting, leaching, dumping or disposing of a hazardous material into or on any land, air, water, well, stream, sewer or pipe so that such hazardous material or any constituent thereof may enter the environment.

FACILITY: Any building, structure, installation, equipment, pipe or pipeline including but not limited to any pipe into a sewer or publicly owned treatment works, well, pond, lagoon, impoundment, ditch, landfill, storage container, tank, motor vehicle, truck trailer, rolling stock or aircraft. Also, any site or area where a hazardous material has been deposited, stored, disposed of, abandoned, placed, or otherwise come to be located.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS: Any material, substance or mixture of materials or substances which are toxic, flammable, corrosive, explosive, carcinogenic or radioactive including, but not limited to, any substance or material which is designated a hazardous material pursuant to the "Hazardous Materials Transportation Act" (49 U.S.C.A., sections 1801, et seq.) in a quantity and form which may pose a substantial present or potential hazard to human health, property or the environment when improperly released, treated, stored, transported, disposed of, or otherwise managed.

PERSON: Any individual, business, firm, partnership, corporation, association, trust, estate, joint venture or other legal entity, or their legal representative, agent or assign.

REMEDIAL ACTION: Any action consistent with permanent, remedy taken instead of, or in addition to, removal actions in the event of a release or threatened discharge of a hazardous material into the environment, to prevent or minimize the discharge of hazardous materials so that they do not migrate to cause a substantial present or potential hazard to human health, property or the environment. The term includes, but is not limited to, such action at the location of the discharge as storage, confinement, perimeter protection using dikes, trenches, or ditches, clay cover, neutralization, cleanup of discharged hazardous materials or contaminated materials, recycling or reuse, diversion, destruction, segregation of reactive wastes, repair or replacement of leaking containers, collection of runoff, onsite treatment or incineration, provision of alternate water supplies, and any monitoring reasonable required to assure that such actions protect the public health and welfare and the environment.

REMOVAL: The cleanup or removal of discharged hazardous materials from the environment, such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to monitor, assess, and evaluate the discharge or threat of discharge of hazardous materials, the disposal of removed material, or the taking of such action as may be necessary to prevent, minimize, or mitigate damage to the public health or welfare of the environment. The term includes, but is not limited to, security fencing, provision of alternative water supplies, and temporary evacuation of threatened individuals.

The purpose of the survey will be to evaluate the organization's compliance with nationally established Joint Commission standards. The survey results will be used to determine whether, and the conditions under which, accreditation should be awarded the organization.

Joint Commission standards deal with organizational quality-of-care issues and the safety of the environment in which care is provided. Anyone believing that he or she has pertinent and valid information about such matters may request a public information interview with the Joint Commission's field representatives at the time of the survey. Information presented at the interview will be carefully evaluated for relevance to the accreditation process. Requests for a public information interview must be made in writing and should be sent to the Joint Commission no later than five working days before the survey begins. The request must also indicate the nature of the information to be provided at the interview. Such requests should be addressed to:

Division of Accreditation Operations
Joint Commission of Accreditation of Healthcare Organizations
1 Renaissance Blvd.
Oakbrook Terrace, IL 60181

The Joint Commission will acknowledge such requests in writing or by telephone and will inform the organization of the request for any interview. The organization will, in turn, notify the interviewee of the date, time, and place of the meeting.

This notice is posted in accordance with the Joint Commission's requirements and may not be removed before the date of the survey.

ed to, security fencing, provision of alternative water supplies, and temporary evacuation of threatened individuals.

RESPONSE: Any removal or remedial action.

Section Three: PROHIBITED ACTS: No person shall cause, threaten or allow the discharge of hazardous materials into the environment unless such discharge is in accordance with an appropriate permit granted by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency or other State or Federal agency having primary jurisdiction over the discharge and such discharge is in such place and manner as will not create a substantial present or potential hazard to human health, property or the environment.

Section Four: RESPONSE AUTHORITY:

A. The Fire Chief or his authorized representative shall have authority to respond to any discharge or threatened discharge of hazardous material within the territory of the District or affecting the public water supply, wells or sewage treatment works located within the District or pursuant to any lawful intergovernmental agreement of which the District is a party. This authority includes, but is not limited to, remedial action and removal.

B. The Fire Chief shall have primary authority to respond to any discharge or threatened discharge of hazardous materials as described above. The Fire Chief shall report any discharge or threatened discharge of hazardous materials to all appropriate Federal, State and local public health, safety and emergency agencies within twenty-four (24) hours of any substantial discharge of hazardous materials. The Fire Chief shall relinquish his response authority at such time, if any, as the Federal, State or local public health, safety or emergency agency having primary jurisdiction over the discharge or threatened discharge has assumed responsibility for response to the discharge or threatened discharge.

C. The Fire Chief, during such time as response authority is vested in him, shall be authorized to utilize all District personnel and equipment and he may, in his sole discretion, take such remedial or removal action as he may deem necessary or appropriate to respond to the discharge or threatened discharge.

D. All responding personnel shall cooperate with and operate under the direction of the Fire Chief or other person then exercising response authority under this ordinance until such time as the person exercising such response authority has determined that the response is complete or responsibility for response is assumed by the Federal, State or local public health, safety or emergency agency having primary jurisdiction over the discharge or threatened discharge.

F. The person exercising response authority under this ordinance shall coordinate and/or cooperate with other Federal, State or local public health, safety or emergency agencies involved in response to the discharge or threatened discharge of hazardous materials.

Section Five: LIABILITY FOR COSTS: Notwithstanding any other provision or rule of law, and subject only to the defenses set forth in Section 6 hereof, the following Persons shall be jointly and severally liable for all costs of removal and remedial action incurred by the District as a result of a discharge or threatened discharge of a hazardous material:

A. The owner and operator of a facility or vessel from which there is a discharge or substantial threat of discharge of a hazardous material.

B. Any person who, at the time of disposal, transport, storage or treatment of a hazardous material, owned or operated the facility or vessel used for such disposal, transport, treatment or storage from which there was a discharge or substantial threat of a discharge of any such hazardous material.

C. Any person who by contact, agreement, or otherwise has arranged with another party or entity for transport, storage, disposal or treatment of hazardous materials owned, controlled or possessed by such person at a facility owned or operated by another party or entity from which facility there is a discharge or substantial threat of a discharge of such hazardous materials.

D. Any person who accepts or accepted any hazardous materials for transport to disposal, storage or treatment facilities from which there is a discharge or a substantial threat of discharge of such hazardous substances.

Section Six: DEFENSES: There shall be no liability under Section Five hereof for a person otherwise liable who can establish by a preponderance of the evidence that the discharge or substantial threat of discharge of a hazardous material and the damages resulting therefrom were caused solely by:

A. An act of nature over which he or she had no control;

B. An act of war; or

C. Any combination of the foregoing.

Section Seven: COSTS AND PENALTIES:

A. Any Person who is liable for the discharge or threatened discharge of a hazardous material who fails without sufficient cause to pay for or provide removal or remedial action upon or in accordance with a notice and request of the District, or in accordance with any order of any court having jurisdiction on the matter, shall be liable to the District for any costs incurred by the District as a result of such failure to provide or take such removal or remedial action, together with the cost of any removal or remedial action taken by the District in accordance with the ordinance, and all attorneys fees and related legal costs incurred in connection therewith.

B. In addition, any such person shall be guilty of a violation of this ordinance and shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each offense. A separate offense shall be deemed committed for each day on which a violation occurs or continues. Where such violation is found to be the result of willful and/or wanton conduct or gross negligence, or the person committing such violation attempts to evade responsibility hereunder by leaving the scene of the occurrence or by other means, that person shall be subject to a fine as provided for above or a fine in an amount equal to three times the costs, including attorneys' fees and legal costs, for which it is liable under Paragraph A of this Section, whichever is greater.

C. Charges for removal or remedial action when rendered by the District or any other agency rendering mutual aid shall be as follows:

1) The reasonable cost of each vehicle responding as determined by the responding agency, but in no case less than $125.00 per hour per vehicle, and

2) The cost of all personnel including any overtime cost to the District or to any responding agency, incurred as a result of the removal or remedial action, and

3) The cost of all materials and equipment used, expended, depleted, destroyed or removed from service in accordance with federal, state or local ordinance as a result of the mitigation or containment operations if or at the request of the District or any responding agency.

4) The cost of services and/or goods provided by a private or public entity which are used, expired, depleted, or destroyed as a result of the response at the request of District or any responding agency.

Section Eight: That this Ordinance shall supersede any ordinances, resolutions, or motions, or part of ordinances, resolutions or motions in conflict with any part herein, and any such sections or parts thereof, are hereby repealed.

Section Nine: If any section, paragraph or provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid or unenforceable for any reason, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect any of the remaining provision of this Ordinance.

Section Ten: This Ordinance shall be published within one month after it is passed in a newspaper of general circulation in the District in accordance with 70ILCS70577. This Ordinance takes effect ten days after it is published.

PUBLIC NOTICE

The Village of Fox Lake is publishing the 2000 Consumer Confidence Report for the Public Water System #0975780. We have mailed this report in past years to each resident; this is the only notice you will receive. They will not be mailed with the monthly water billing. If anyone would like a copy of the report or has additional questions please contact Keith Peterson, Supervisor Water Department or Helen Prosperi, Village Clerk at the Village Hall at 847-587-2151.

2000 Consumer Confidence Report Village of Fox Lake Water System #0975780 2000 Source Water Assessment Summary

Based upon Section 141.153(b)2 of the CCR rule, community water supplies are required to report a summary of their source water susceptibility determination, which are compiled by the Illinois EPA.

As of the date of this report, this summary has not been completed. The Illinois EPA must complete all source water assessments by May 2003. As this assessment becomes available, our supply will summarize the results and incorporate the information into this report, as required.

Further information on our community water supply's source water assessment is available on the USGS web site at <http://il.water.usgs.gov> or by calling the Groundwater Section of the Illinois EPA at 217-785-4787.

Village Board Meetings

The Village Board meets on the second, third and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 7:00pm at the Village Hall located at 301 S. RT. 59.

The Sewer & Water Committee meet on the third Tuesday of each month at 6:00 pm at the Village Hall. Please feel free to attend these meetings.

A Few Words From The Sewer & Water Dept.

The Sewer & Water Dept. flush the fire hydrants twice a year, once in the spring and again in the fall. This flushing is required to insure our fire hydrants are working properly and to clean the water mains of sediments that cause red water and odor problems. This can be difficult in some areas of the Village due to the hilly terrain. Our Employees are very concerned about where the discharged water ends up. For the properties that receive some of this water, please expect our deepest apologies.

If you have a question about your Sewer & Water Bill please call our office at 847-587-8393 or E-mail munoza@foxlake.org.

All calls other than Billing are accepted at 847-587-3694 or 847-587-4671 or E-mail petersok@foxlake.org.

For Sewer & Water Locations Before You Dig.

Water Quality Data Table Footnotes

BETA-PHOTON EMITTERS

The MCL for beta particles is 4 mrem/year. EPA considers 50 pCL/L to be a level of concern for beta particles.

UNREGULATED CONTAMINANTS:

A maximum contaminant level (MCL) for this contaminant has not been established by either state or federal regulations, nor has mandatory health effects language. The purpose for monitoring this contaminant is to assist USEPA in determining the occurrence of unregulated contaminants in drinking water, and whether future regulation is warranted.

FLUORIDE

Fluoride is added to the water supply to help promote strong teeth. The Illinois Department of Public Health recommends an optimal fluoride range of 0.9 mg/L to 1.2 mg/L.

IRON

This contaminant is not currently regulated by USEPA. However, the state has set an MCL for this contaminant for supplies serving a population of 1000 or more.

MANGANESE

This information is not currently regulated by USEPA. However, the state has set an MCL for this contaminant for supplies serving a population of 1000 or more.

SODIUM

There is not a state or federal MCL for sodium. Monitoring is required to provide information to consumers and health officials that are concerned about sodium intake due to dietary precautions. If you are on a sodium-restricted diet, you should consult a physician about this level of sodium in the water.

2000 WATER QUALITY DATA

DEFINITION OF TERMS

Maximum Contaminant Level Goal (MCLG): The level of a contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health. MCLGs allow for a margin of safety.

Maximum Contaminant Level (MCL): The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.

Level Found: This column represents an average of sample result data collected during the CCR calendar year. In some cases, it may represent a single sample if only one sample was collected.

Range of Detections: This column represents a range of individual sample results, from lowest to highest that were collected during the CCR calendar year.

Date of Sample: If a date appears in this column, the Illinois EPA requires monitoring for this contaminant less than once per year because the concentrations do not frequently change. If no date appears in the column, monitoring for this contaminant was conducted during the Consumer Confidence Report calendar year.

Action Level (AL): The concentration of a contaminant which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.

Treatment Technique (TT): A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.

nd: Not detectable at testing limits.

n/a: Not applicable

ABOUT OUR WATER SYSTEM

In 1972, the Leisure Technologies completed construction on the Tall Oaks Public Water Supply, now known as the Fox Lake Water System #2. This new water system supplied potable water to the Leisure Village and Vacation Village Home Owners Associations.

The water treatment facility, located on Grass Lake Road one half mile east of State Park Road, consisted of a 500,000 gallon ground reservoir, one shallow well and three high pressure booster pumps. The distribution system consisting of 10", 8" and 6" water main, serviced all of the Leisure Village and Vacation area.

Well #1 was drilled to a depth of 146 feet in 1972 and produced 1500 gallons per minute. At present this well produces 350 gpm and is treated with sodium hypochlorite for disinfection, and hydrofluosilicic acid to help prevent tooth decay. The treated water from well #1 is then pumped into the ground reservoir.

In the fall of 1976 well #2 was drilled to a depth of 133 feet and produced 730 gallons per minute.

With the high iron content in both Wells 1&2 an iron removal filtration system was installed in 1989 to lower the iron content in your drinking water to an acceptable limit.

At present this well produces 650 gpm. This water is filtered of iron, then treated with gas chlorine for disinfection, and hydrofluosilicic acid to help prevent tooth decay. The treated water is then pumped to the reservoir for storage before entering the distribution system.

The Tall Oaks Water System now supplies potable water to not only Leisure Village and Vacation Village, but also to Hickory Cove, East and West Dunes Lake Subdivisions, Woodland Green, and Reva Bay Subdivisions.

The Tall Oaks Public Water System is now treating approximately 200,000 gallons of water per day in the cool months of the year, and approximately 400,000 gallons per day during the warm months of the year.

WATER SAMPLING & TESTING

The Sewer & Water Dept. Personnel sample and test for Fluorine, Chlorine and Iron Concentrations 365 days a year. These test are performed daily at our treatment Plant and throughout the Distribution System to ensure the chemicals added to our water are within acceptable limits.

In addition to our daily samples the Sewer & Water Dept. Personnel sample throughout the year for contaminants that may be present in our well water before we treat it.

Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk.

Sources of drinking water (both tap water and bottled water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally occurring minerals and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Contaminants that may be present in source water include:

Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock and wildlife.

Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally-occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining or farming.

Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture and residential uses.

Radioactive contaminants, which are naturally occurring.

Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organic chemicals, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff, and septic systems.

In order to ensure that your water is safe to drink, the I.E.P.A. prescribes regulations limiting the amount of certain contaminants in the water our Public Water System provides you. All water Treatment and the Operation & Maintenance of our Water System is performed according to all I.E.P.A. regulations.

Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than the general population. Immuno-compromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water with their health care providers. USEPA/CDC guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the USEPA's Safe Drinking Water Hotline. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained from the EPA Safe Drinking Water Hotline at 1-800-426-4791.

VA relates options for Chicago-area Health Care

Improved access to health care and higher quality care for veterans throughout Chicago, Wisconsin and Michigan moved closer to reality when the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) began evaluating nine options for the delivery of health care in the region.

The options, developed by Booz-Allen & Hamilton, a national consulting firm experienced in health care management, are part of a VA study known as CARES, or "Capital Asset Realignment for Enhanced Services." CARES is a detailed process that will allow VA to align facilities and other resources so that veterans have improved access to quality health care today and in the future.

"We anticipate that CARES will bring more care to more veterans at more locations," said Kathryn S. Maginnis, CARES program manager. "CARES will ensure that veterans get better access, more efficient programs and improved services."

The greater Chicago-Michigan-Wisconsin area is the first region to undergo the CARES process, which VA plans to apply across the country. VA operates more than 1,300 hospitals, clinics, nursing homes and other "sites of care" which employ about 185,000 health care workers and treat nearly 4 million patients.

Today's announcement marks the start of an intensive review of the options. VA officials encourage input from veterans and their families, veterans' service organizations, Congress, affiliated universities, VA employees and other interested parties. The final decision is expected in early fall.

In developing the options, Booz-Allen & Hamilton analyzed the health care needs of veterans throughout the region. The firm also worked with an actuary to project future needs. From this objective data, they identified options for restructuring VA's health care and services. The health care options take into account the age, medical conditions and other special characteristics and needs of local veterans.

"Savings that come from CARES will be directed back into care for local veterans," said Maginnis. "This will enhance outpatient care, long-term care and care for special disabilities such as blind rehabilitation and spinal cord injury."

More than a million veterans eligible for VA services live in Chicago and surrounding counties.

Details about the latest VA study-along with information about filing comments-can be obtained from VA's Internet home page, <http://www.va.gov/CARES>.

Comments on CARES should be sent to vhaocares@hq.med.va.gov. Comments can also be mailed to: Director, CARES program (10AC), Department of Veterans Affairs, 810 Vermont Ave., NW, Washington, DC, 20420.

CLC NOTES

Elder College explores communication

The art of communication from the early days of radio and film to the modern age of computers will be examined during the College of Lake County's summer Elder College program for adults 50 and older. The weeklong program will be held from July 9-13 at CLC's Southlake Educational Center, 1120 S. Milwaukee Ave., Vernon Hills.

Throughout the week, students will participate in interactive discussions, field trips and performances to examine the power of communication through dance, music and theatre; media and advertising; and computers and the Internet. Students will view films from the 1930s and study how American life was characterized during the great depression era. They also will experience a traditional African-American healing dance, a classical ballet and see the CLC summer theatre production of "The Threepenny Opera." Also included in the program will be a guided tour of the Museum of Broadcasting and the Field Museum's exhibit "Playing with Fire."

The cost is $169 per person. For registration and information, call the Southlake Educational Center at 543-6503.

Flagger Certification Course

A four-hour continuing education course to train and certify individuals as flaggers at highway construction sites will be offered by the College of Lake County this summer. "Flagger Certification (CVOC 19-101)" will be offered from 6-10 p.m. on July 11 at the CLC's Lakeshore Campus in Waukegan.

The course will prepare the novice for his or her first day on the job and provide a refresher for the experienced flagger. It also will include worker safety guidelines to reduce corporate and personal liability. Students successfully completing the course and earning a passing grade on the test will receive certification from the Illinois Department of Transportation.

The cost is $79 plus $20 for materials. For course information, call 543-2022. To register, dial 223-1111.

'Threepenny Opera' at CLC

The theatre department at the College of Lake County will present "The Threepenny Opera" by Bertold Brecht and Kurt Weill on July 13, 14, 19, 20 and 21. All performances will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Studio Theatre on CLC's Grayslake Campus. Tickets are $12 for the general public and $10 for students, alumni and seniors 65 and older.

"The Threepenny Opera" is based on John Gay's "The Beggar's Opera," which has been updated to the time of Queen Victoria's coronation. The story is set in London's underworld and involves the romance of Macheath and Polly Peachum, which is opposed by her father, the king of London's beggars. Brecht's title of the play refers to the price a beggar can afford to pay and contains music like "Mac the Knife" and "Pirate Jenny's Song."

The CLC production is directed Eibhlín Glennon, director of theatre and an English faculty member. For tickets, call the box office at 543-2300. MasterCard, Visa, Discover and American Express are accepted.

SCHOOLS

127 could be in the neighborhood of nearly $2.3 million once the entire development was completed.

Community Consolidated School Dist. 46 could see around $2.8 million and Fremont School Dist. 79 nearly $1.4 million.

"We (the EDC) approved this plan because it turns a potential major negative—future school district funding—into a positive," said Harris.

Still in its early planning stages, Central Range is looking at single-family housing for 250 families.

"Under current zoning, approximately 900 homes could be built on this property," Harris said. "It is estimated that these homes would generate more than 1,600 new students for the three districts with an annual net cost to these districts of more than $8.7 million."

In other words, if the Central Range went completely residential with a build-out of 900 homes, each school district would lose due to the loss of the tax base and the cost to educate students.

Grayslake Community High School would look at losing around $843,000 a year, Community Consolidated Dist. 46 could lose $1.8 million and Fremont Dist. 79 could be the big loser at $6.8 million.

"Instead of an annual net cost to the districts of $8.7 million, at build-out, we will have net positive property tax revenues annually of $6.5 million for our schools with the Central Range Plan," Harris said.

Earlier this month, the Community Consolidated School Dist. 46 Board of Education discussed the potential implications, both pro and con to their district.

Superintendent Dr. Kurt Anderson said his board is in favor of the development and will probably draft a resolution to that effect before their July meeting.

INGROWN TOENAILS

Ingrown toenails are a very painful condition. A nail is ingrown when one or both corners or sides of the nail grow into the skin of the toe. Irritation, redness and pain and an infection can result. Ingrown toenails can be caused by a variety of reason, shoes that do not fit correctly, improper nail cutting, congenital deformities of the toe can cause the nail to grow incorrectly, injury, fungus.

The pain of ingrown toenails can be relieved by a simple surgical procedure that can be done in a podiatrist's office. The offending nail spicule is permanently removed thus preventing reoccurrence of this condition.

If you are suffering from ingrown toenails or have any questions regarding ingrown toenails, please feel free to contact Dr. Lee M. Tisa for a no cost consultation to discuss this condition and treatments available to you.

How To Survive The Job Search

By Nancy Sakol

Q: I have been searching for a full time job for the past seven months after being the victim of a huge lay-off from a large corporation I had been with for almost ten years. I have a degree in marketing and have been heavily involved in marketing and research for most of the ten years I was there. I have searched both on my own and through employment services with no luck. In my venture I have been asked to divulge the college from which I am degree and the year I received my degree. I have been asked this question by both corporations and employment services and refuse to answer this question because it is discriminating. I don't think it is necessary that anyone knows my age. Apparently every time I refuse to answer, the interview is abruptly over therefore I am being discriminated against. I have spoke to a few friends about this and they don't agree. They say the problem is mine. I thought I would write to you and ask you why it is that companies even ask the year. Please respond as soon as possible. M.W. - Lake Bluff

A: I can only say that employment services for the most part act in as an agent between two parties. The job seeker and the employer. I for one would never pass off an individual to a corporation whereby I was unable to verify the validity of the persons background. Therefore, if a corporation is searching for a degree marketing professional, and you claim you are a degree marketing professional, before standing behind your background you best know that your degree will be verified. The way to accomplish that verification is to have your college or university name and year of said degree. It is your prerogative to abstain from giving the information out, but don't count on getting the job if verification is mandatory. Wouldn't you like to feel assured that the doctor performing surgery did in fact graduate medical school? You may be seriously hindering your own employment, for what ever reason, by protesting too much. If you are that good at what you did and have the credentials and references to back you, who cares when you became degree as long as it can be verified. If you do not want to give out that information, a normal reaction for any potential employer would be that you have something to hide. By the way, the word discrimination is also a turn-off to any potential employer especially in the course of an interview. Many people like to use the word discrimination for the reason that they are unemployed. If there are 1- persons applying for the same position, are the nine persons that did not get the position supposed to assume they were discriminated against? Illinois is a right to hire state. either do yourself a favor and get with the program or keep fighting it. The financial decision is yours.
